"...most people will read these, even if they have refused to look at all other gospel tracts."

"I've been passing out your tracts and have seen great results. People have read them and got saved!"

I stumbled upon a garbage heap, saw a filthy little booklet and picked it up. As I flipped through the pages, I was gripped with excitement and fear. It dawned on me that somehow some day, I must appear before the judgment seat of Christ. The booklet was titled This Was Your Life. It became my most valuable treasure and I shared it with all my friends and made converts. This booklet turned my life around and ignited a flame in me.

God's seed was planted in my mind when I was 7 years old by Chick Publications. This Was Your Life was the seed.

When customers began to request that Chick tracts be redrawn for a black audience, Jack Chick tapped a world class artist for the job —Fred Carter.

Originally from Danville, Illinois, Fred Carter was saved at 18. Coming from an artistic family, he has been drawing all his life.

When a teacher saw The American Academy of Arts in Chicago was running an art contest, he persuaded Fred to submit his work. Fred won 2nd place...and a scholarship. After a profitable year at the Academy, Fred had to leave school to earn a living. By 1972, he had joined Chick Publications. Fred is the artist behind all of Chick's full-color comics, and also most of the film Light of the World. Fred, with Lee Esther, his wife, also pastors a local church.

The Sissy

Tim Berends Talks About Witnessing to Muslims in Dearborn, Michigan:

"By wearing my 'I love Muslims' t-shirt and greeting them with a simple Arabic phrase, they usually welcome me long enough to get a tract into their hands.

"I walk directly toward them with a smile, raise my voice and say 'as-salamu alaykum' (Which means, 'Peace Be Upon You'). Usually they will smile as they see my t-shirt and hear the greeting. I give each member in the group a tract and say: 'Here is one for each of you, so you won't fight over them.'" Using this good humor, he is rarely turned down.

"Many Christians have a fear of witnessing to Muslims, but they are just another kind of lost soul."
