

The Pope Wants You to Have 73 (or 80) Books in Your Bible

By David W. Daniels

The popes have always had a different Bible. At first this counterfeit church insisted that the Bible could only be in Latin. That way they could control the masses who did not have a Bible in their native tongues. They had to take the priest's word for what it said. Amazingly, some of the priests could not even read Latin! The blind led the blind.

The Reformation broke their stranglehold. But they have continued to scheme by destroying trust in God's words. They had ESV (with Apocrypha) approved for Catholic use, even in the Liturgy.

Religious Freedom Does Not Guarantee Righteousness

While America has suffered a significant decline in righteousness, a recent study by the Becket religious liberty law firm finds increased support for religious freedom. Sixty percent of the 1,000 respondents to the survey favored the practice of religious expression even if it inconvenienced other people. Eighty percent were against interference by government in their individual beliefs. Seventy-four percent supported the expression of religious practices in the workplace.

However, the decline in righteousness complicates this considerably. America's founding fathers recognized that Biblical beliefs were the foundation of this freedom. They did not visualize that that freedom would allow Muslim honor killings or satanic statues in government buildings.

The capture of our culture by atheistic humanism also opens the door to those who want to eliminate all religious practices. This has led to the removal of any consideration of God in our public schools.

a long-term con. They convinced people that they could “date” a manuscript by looking at it. Then they conveniently found “older and better” manuscripts with changes favorable to their baptized pagan doctrines. Their success was phenomenal. Jesuits like Cardinal Mai, scholars like Westcott and Hort, translation influencers like Eugene Nida and publishers like Thomas Nelson produced a common text, “acceptable” to Roman Catholics, Eastern Orthodox and unsuspecting Protestants.

As I wrote in Why They Changed the Bible: One World Bible for One World Religion, Eugene Nida was very useful to the popes. Standing at the crossroads, he was deceived enough to believe that Protestants and Baptists should merge with the Roman Catholics and Orthodox to create one acceptable Bible.

The move of the Vatican has been both simple and subtle. First, the Protestants and Baptists were made to accept Roman Catholics’ help editing Greek and Hebrew texts of the Bible. Second, they started to accept the additional books of the Roman Catholics. And finally, they pushed the extra additional books of the Eastern Orthodox. That way we could all be one big, happy (dysfunctional) family. One world Bible for one world religion.

Think that’s too crazy? Look around. You can purchase a Roman Catholic version of the English Standard Bible, the Living Bible, the RSV and NRSV. They contain 7 additional books and 3 additions to existing books. These are commonly called the Apocrypha, but they prefer to label them “Deuterocanonicals” (meaning “a second canon,” or list of accepted Bible books). That raises the total to 73.

And the Common English Bible also adds extra books of the Eastern Orthodox, for a total of 80. The CEB contains contributions by 9 Fuller Theological Seminary professors, including the Dean of the School of Theology! We are not that far away right now from a Bible acceptable to everyone —except those who know the history of this attack on God’s words.

This is the result of the second, corrupt stream of Bible history, described in Did the Catholic Church Give Us the Bible? The pure stream led to an enduring English Bible that God preserved, which God has used for over 400 years, bringing revivals and worldwide missions: the King James Bible. What is described above is the chaotic result of Satan’s diabolical use of the second stream, the one that comes out of disbelieving Alexandria, Egypt. Satan created this stream through unbelieving men, to prepare a glut of counterfeit Bibles for a

The founding fathers openly declared that virtue was necessary for the success of the government that they had established. And it was understood that that virtue would need to come from a Judeo-Christian culture. What we have now does not represent what they had in mind. But they knew that that freedom could be turned into license when the culture deteriorated to the viewpoint that everyone has a right to do that which is right in his own eyes.

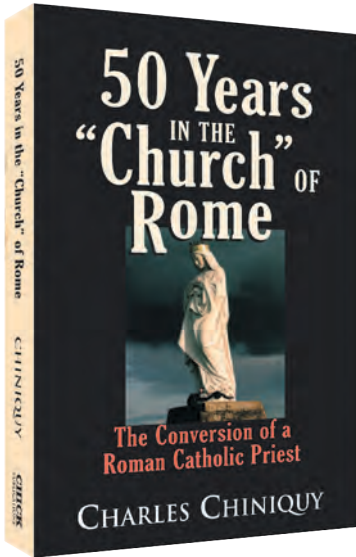

This puts a special spotlight on the importance of righteousness in the nation. And righteousness is not the result of an increasingly larger police force; it must come from the bottom up. Whatever children are taught, that will be the direction of the culture in the next generation.

Bible believers who use Chick tracts have learned that Chick literature can fill two purposes. First of all, they present a serious, no-nonsense gospel. Second, many

50 Years in the "Church" of Rome by Charles Chiniquy

As a priest, Charles Chiniquy had a problem . . . he read his Bible. After obediently preaching his church's doctrine of Mary our Intercessor, he went home and read where Mary made public requests (intercessions) to Jesus on behalf of someone else. In each case, she was rebuked! Chiniquy was devastated. He had preached a falsehood!

In chapter after chapter, we follow Chiniquy as he realizes that the doctrines of his Catholic Church are contrary to his Bible. Finally, he left Rome, taking nearly his entire parish with him, to follow Jesus alone.

are packed with scripture and stories of life situations helpful in training young (or not so young) disciples. Many have written to Chick Publications expressing their gratitude for the basic doctrines that they learned from Chick tracts. For those who wish to go further in understanding some of the false religions, back-up literature is also available on the Chick.com web site. The Next Step is particularly useful for discipleship.

America needs a revival of the consciousness of sin before a holy God. That awareness can only come when people are taught God's laws. They need to be taught that His laws are designed for our benefit. The constitution guarantees our freedom to pursue happiness. But we must pursue happiness according to God's plan. If we pursue it in sinful ways it can only lead to disappointment, despair and death. And we are seeing an increasing abundance of all of these.

Revivals in history have often been started with a wide distribution of gospel tracts.

Chick tracts are laced with scriptures designed to help people understand how to please God and thereby get the best out of life —plus eternal life. You can pick from over 100 titles addressing most of the pressing issues of sin today. Visit www.chick.com or call 909-987-0771 for more information.

The Next Step in the Sexual Revolution

Between drag queen performances at libraries, homosexual characters on TV, porno-health ed in kindergarten and internet teaser ads, our children's innocence has nowhere to hide. Those who raised a red flag early on in the sexual revolution predicted that pedophilia was in the plans. Now, the attack on our children is relentless. Parents who try to object are stonewalled by the school officials or other bought-and-paid-for bureaucrats.

The entertainment industry has been very useful to the homosexual lobby in this regard. A recent report from a homosexual organization, GLAAD (formerly Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation), states that the percentage of homosexual characters on prime-time broadcast TV was at an all-time high of 10.2 percent. Out of 879 characters, 90 were openly homosexual. Sarah Kate Ellis, GLAAD president said, "...increased representation of LGBTQ stories and characters on television is especially critical to advance of LGBTQ acceptance." And prime time is when parents are most likely to turn the kids over to the TV to babysit.

But the demon behind the men at Lot's door demanding his angelic house guests is not satisfied with "acceptance." Approval and endorsement is the goal with zero criticism or opposition. There is a worldwide campaign to normalize pedophilia. As an extension of the homosexual drive for acceptance, pedophilia is being redefined as just another sexual "orientation." They have been hugely successful in getting same-sex attraction reclassified from a behavior to an identity they were born with. Now the same strategy is being applied to pedophilia.

Evolution is ‘Incoherent Folktales’ Says World-Renowned Scientist

David Berlinski is a world-recognized expert on the history of science. He is one of hundreds of scientific professionals raising increasingly articulate voices against the trumpeted “settled science” of the theory of evolution. Evolution is “vague, incoherent, unarticulated, imprecise” and as a theory, “doesn’t exist in any rigorous form,” according to Berlinski. Evolution is a “series of folktales” that “doesn’t answer any deep questions” he adds.

The Discovery Institute in Seattle, Washington, where Berlinski is a senior fellow, is a think tank devoted to exposing the pseudo-science of the theory of evolution. They have spotlighted the concept of “intelligent design” pointing out that all beings that are alive are so complex that it is impossible to explain their development through the accidents of natural selection. “Biological structures do appear as if they were not only intelligently designed but brilliantly designed. You take a look at any biological system and the level of complexity is so daunting as to be indescribable,” Berlinski points out.

Another idea that they have championed is “irreducible complexity.” Here they point out that some organs such as the eye could not have evolved because mutational mishaps are always destructive instead of advancing the complexity of the design. In other words, the eye had to have been designed and created as a whole. No amount of time could account for its spontaneous development. And the lack of any part yet undeveloped would render it either useless or self-destructive.

One campaign by the Discovery Institute is called “Teach the Controversy,” an attempt to help public schools present both sides of the evolution debate. The government education system has been hijacked by atheists and humanists who cannot tolerate the possibility of there being a Creator. Evolution as settled truth must be taught at all costs. Otherwise God is allowed into the picture and their whole house of cards comes down.

In the end, everyone alive must decide for himself the difference between truth and lies. But as parents, we are also obligated to guide our children in this choice. Today it is much more difficult than previous generations. Satan has so taken over our culture that delusions such as evolution are vigorously defended as truth. Only by very determined effort can parents guide children through the thicket of lies to Jesus who is the ultimate Truth.

Chick Publications has some literature that can be helpful in teaching the truth as well as witnessing and soul winning. Along with a gospel tract, Big Daddy, the Crusaders Comic Primal Man? can be useful in helping children (or adults) decide where Truth is in this debate.

For in-depth study of the theory of evolution, The Evolution Handbook is one of the best $6 investments that you can make. Nowhere else for the price, can you find almost 1,000 pages of facts, quotations and references. Any false teaching on evolution is likely countered somewhere in this powerful volume.

Another coverage of the basic errors of evolution can be found in Thomas Heinze’s 96-page book, The Vanishing Proofs of Evolution. It is written simply for the student who is just beginning to encounter this false teaching.

These resources are provided by Chick Publications in an effort to counter this fundamental lie concocted by the Father of Lies. Visit www.chick.com or call 987-0771 for more information.

Next Step... from p. 4

San Diego State University recently showed to a classroom of students an 8-minute Vice News video “showcasing self-identified pedophiles.” One student tweeted: “This is going to be mainstreamed.”

In fact, the game has recently moved to the school playground. News stories are beginning to surface of graphic sexual content in elementary school health curriculum. Some is so suggestive that shocked parents have labeled it pornography. Because of the stonewalling of the school officials, parents are banding together to try and force the issue.

Parents must be super vigilant in reviewing their child’s government school curriculum. When objectionable content is found, like-minded parents should register loud and persistent objection with all the school officials in sight. Pastors and church leaders should be enlisted to exert community pressure. Unfortunately, local media is often hostile to attempts to bring God’s truth into the picture. Local merchants who buy advertisements will sometimes bring pressure on the editors.

However, there is a bit of good news. During the beginning of the sexual revolution in the mid-20th century, there was a move to lower or eliminate the age of consent laws. Pedophiles wished to avoid the charge of statutory rape. Historically, these laws have favored such predators with some countries setting it at 10 or under. Globally it has moved in the higher direction with the U.S. leading the way in raising the bar at least to 16 and in some states as high as 18.

All this is just another battle in the war that Satan maintains against our Creator. God’s plan for married sex is under constant attack. Historically, sexual perversion has been a global constant as one powerful nation after another has rotted from the inside.

But God’s plan does not change. He continues to commission His people to diligently preach His plan. In that sense all Bible believers are “preachers.” We are all under the Great Commission to “preach” as in Mark 16:25: “Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.” As Bible believers, we can either step up to that calling or sit back and “enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season.”

Satan has twisted our understanding to believing that only ordained “preachers” should preach. But “preaching” is simply presenting God’s truth to “every creature.” Dedicated ordained preachers do it well, but all other Bible believers are still obligated to the best of their ability. For some, their best is just to hand someone a gospel tract, or maybe even just secretly leave it on a toilet paper roll in a public restroom.

God bless you for spreading the truth; I am a high school teacher and I’m appalled at what our godless, socialist governor has pushed through the government. We were informed at the beginning of the school year that we had to accept whatever gender the students decided or risk a lawsuit and be fired. Worse yet, we were not allowed to tell the parents of the students their gender choice. The students also are allowed to use whatever bathroom they want, no matter how violating it is to the other students. Jesus is coming back soon and I can’t imagine how much worse it’s going to get.

Are We Really Too Dumb to Read the King James?

By David W. Daniels

When people tell you that the King James Version of the Bible is hard to understand, can you believe them? Although you can generally trust them, is it possible that they have bad information? Shouldn't you see for yourself? After all, we are talking about important words that our Creator chose for us to know. These weren't just random words.

If you learned that the secrets of the ages were contained in a book, but you didn't know some of its words, what would you do? I know what you would do: you would go get all the reference books that you needed to decipher that book and its language. You would quickly try to learn whatever you could from that precious book.

Well guess what? God has decided to put His precious words for us in one language for both the Old and New Testaments. And He did this around 1611. That's over 400 years ago. God placed His riches into this language which has become universal.

One third of the nations in the world speak English either as a first or second language. When English made its march to domination, one book set the standard for classic English, the new Bible authorized by King James. 400 years later, modern English contains over 200 figures of speech traceable to the King James English. There is no other world language competing against English. God appears to have set His words in this language until Jesus returns. I believe that it is the final end-times language for God's words.

Modern scholars love to disagree with God's words and substitute their own. Which do you prefer? Would you rather learn a few words that are a little difficult at first, and then get the riches that come from having the exact words of God? Or would you rather take the easy way out, and risk getting nothing but the opinions of a few self-professed scholars? The choice is yours.

But if you are one of those people who wants God's words no matter what, we have a new book for you: Yes You Can \(And You Should!\) Read the King James. If the King James seems a little bit difficult, this book will help you get over the hump. Learning a few principles and practices and using a few of the helps in this book, you will be well on your way to understanding God's words like you never have before. Don't you think it's worth a look?

I believe the King James is the end times Bible in English. After the invention of the movable type printing press, God began to prepare a world Bible. Throughout the 1500s, the Roman Catholic system suppressed God's words in many nations. But God miraculously defended one country: England. And from 1604-11, two opposing Christian groups, the Puritans and the Church of England, came together to produce a single translation they all could agree upon. In 1611 God's words were cemented in one language, and its fruit stunned the world. Its words brought such faith that they started revivals, as well as world-wide missions.

If God did all that to preserve His words for us, shouldn't we put out a little effort to learn to read it?

counterfeit church to use in the End Time.

What we need is a revival of faith in God's inspired and preserved words, in English, the King James Bible. Anything less will not do. People are falling for the Devil's four-step plan: confusion, doubt, disbelief and rebellion. They need to be able to trust in just one Bible to find God's will and best life for them. Please pray with me for that needed revival. And do what you can to get out the truth. You may also be a man or woman at the crossroads—but for God.

Missions Fund Report

As of this writing, you have provided over 25 MILLION Chick tracts to missionaries worldwide through the Chick Missions Fund. And another 655,000 are already committed to more projects. Thank you for your faithfulness.

Requests keep coming in as missionaries discover what a difference these tracts can make in their outreach.

Belgium: Missionary Junior Haley (Belgium) tells us that in Belgium it is difficult to get people to accept tracts. He wrote: “With Chick tracts we see people are not only receptive, but read them. When I walk along the bus stop giving them out, I typically can give them to most everyone there, above one hundred people, and when I look back everyone is reading.” Haley gets results, too, as “many people come to church directly as a result of receiving these and have seen people saved as well.” In fact, the first person saved there came as a result of one of these tracts.

Kenya: Missionary Joetta Smith writes: “God continues to bring people here to the center with their questions because a tract has given them a desire to hear more!” In this poor nation, the taxi cabs (called pikipikis) are actually small motorcycles. The passengers ride on the back, like the family in the picture to the left. This is how Joetta Smith gets around. After she gave out the tracts you provided and preaching in Rangala, one of the pikipiki drivers said he wanted to be saved. And he is not the only one! Little churches are sprouting up and are prospering because of the seed being sown here and in neighboring countries. God’s Word is bearing fruit (it always does)!

Ethiopia: Zvedu Tefera (Compassion International) works with children in different parts of Ethiopia, and reports: “215 people received Jesus Christ at different places.” Your gifts are bearing fruit! The children in the photo to the right are all deeply reading the Gospel you provided.

Philippines: Because of the wide-open access for the Gospel in this country, we have more missions projects going than any other country. Rodelio Mallari (who translates all the Chick tracts) and his teams pass out tens of thousands of Chick tracts and share them with other churches. They share many pictures with us showing Filipinos of all ages in rapt

Notes from All Over

Sin in America Beginning to Take its Toll

The Journal of the American Medical Association is reporting that the U.S. life expectancy has declined for the third straight year. Death rates in all groups increased but the midlife group, ages 25 to 64 were the hardest hit. Drug overdoses, alcohol abuse, suicides, and a list of various “organ system diseases” were blamed.

U.S. life expectancy has been on a steady increase for the last 100 years, from around 47 in 1900 to the current 78. Medical advances and clean living worked wonders. With serious health issues increasingly under control, people were freed to work and innovate, producing the most prosperous nation yet in history. Now we are seeing a peaking. Solomon observed in Proverbs 14:34 that “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.”

For a long time, sin in the U.S. was largely controlled by each generation trained in basic righteousness, by community taboos and criminal laws. About 50 years ago, legalization of sin began with legal abortion and later same-sex was decriminalized. The Law of God is now disregarded, and political leaders cherry-pick which laws they choose to enforce.

Yet sin has its costs. Laws are not effective against alcohol and drug abuse, they require general morality in the people. America’s founders stressed that personal virtue and self-government were necessary for successful “pursuit of happiness.”

Some governments have instituted what they call a “sin tax,” a payment to the government for every pack of cigarettes or bottle of alcohol sold. However, sin has its own tax. Think of what we pay in locks for our doors, burglar alarms, courts and prisons, and medical costs of gluttony and substance abuse. In one way or another each of these takes away from the general prosperity for everyone else.

Soul winners, these statistics show how important witnessing is. If we all worked at it, every despondent person, everyone who turns to drugs or alcohol to escape the pressures of life, everyone who turns to crime could be challenged, even by a simple gospel tract, to cast their cares on their Creator and find happiness God’s way.

Gender Detransition Conference

A “world’s first ‘detransition’ conference” was held in London recently. Women gathered to express their regret for following the path of hormone drugs and mutilation in gender reassignment. The conference was the kickoff of the Detransition Advocacy Network founded by Charlie Evans, 28, a woman who identified as a man for 10 years. She claims that, when she went public with her regret, hundreds of young people contacted her expressing their own dismay at the results.

One 23-year-old woman had had a double mastectomy, hysterectomy, and an oophorectomy (removal of ovaries) before she realized that she would never become male. Her scathing comment was: “What... are surgeons doing, calling this gender reassignment and gender-reaffirming health care? Because my body doesn’t feel healthy anymore!”

This is an example of several movements around the world and in the U.S. by disillusioned people who have made life-changing decisions while young and vulnerable leaving them permanently unable to function in a normal marriage. We need to tell everyone we can that God’s way is still the best way.

Everyone Deserves A Chance To Hear About Jesus

People. We meet them everywhere we go. And they all have something in common... Jesus died for them and He wants them to know it. His plan? ...He wants us to tell them.

Not everyone is interested. The problem is knowing who is ready to hear. Since we can't know that, the only alternative is to sow the seed of the gospel everywhere, and trust God for the harvest.

Make no mistake. Everyone has a moment of crisis some time in life. And when they meet that sorrow or despair, will they know where to turn for help? They will if you gave them a gospel tract!

attention as they read the gospel message like nothing they have ever seen! Here are just a couple:

Philippines: Joshua Yun, a missionary sent from South Korea, has an active church and regular outreach using these tracts. They distribute two large boxes monthly in the Metro Manila area and are seeing many saved through the tracts.

The young man in the photo to the right has interrupted what he was doing to learn his life is a trip which will end in one of two places... heaven or hell.

As this report was being prepared, a project providing 200,000 tracts in Malayalam and Tamil languages is just being completed in India. The Hindu government there may not like the Gospel, but the church just keeps going!

Missionaries keep requesting the tracts and, thanks to your faithfulness, we have not had to turn them away!

million were distributed in churches in China.

While the Chinese government is mounting a crackdown on underground believers, estimates are that there are 100 million believers there, with hundreds of thousands more baptized every year. Experts predict that China may become the most Christian nation by 2030.

History teaches that persecution only brings more focus on the power of the gospel. But we who live in freedom should use it diligently while we can to share God's better way with everyone we can.

Remember, the three seconds it takes to hand someone a gospel tract can change a life for eternity.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Since 1981, I've heard "We need to win the world for Christ!" But somewhere along the line we were told the lie that gospel tracts don't work, but our lifestyle can win the lost. But people won't receive the gospel if we do not give the gospel. "...how shall they hear without a preacher?" (Romans 10:14) That means us, not just a guy behind a pulpit.

After this short life is —forever. People who reject Christ will regret it forever in the lake of fire! Isn't it worth a little effort to give them the gospel? Yes. That's why I give out Chick tracts. I want to give the lost the same opportunity I had to be saved.

But then saved people need a Bible. And there is just one English Bible that doesn't compromise on anything God said. And it's the one that bore the fruit (faith) that God said His words would bear: the King James Bible. History witnesses to its saving power, its doctrinal clarity and the faith it has brought —400 years of revivals and worldwide missions.

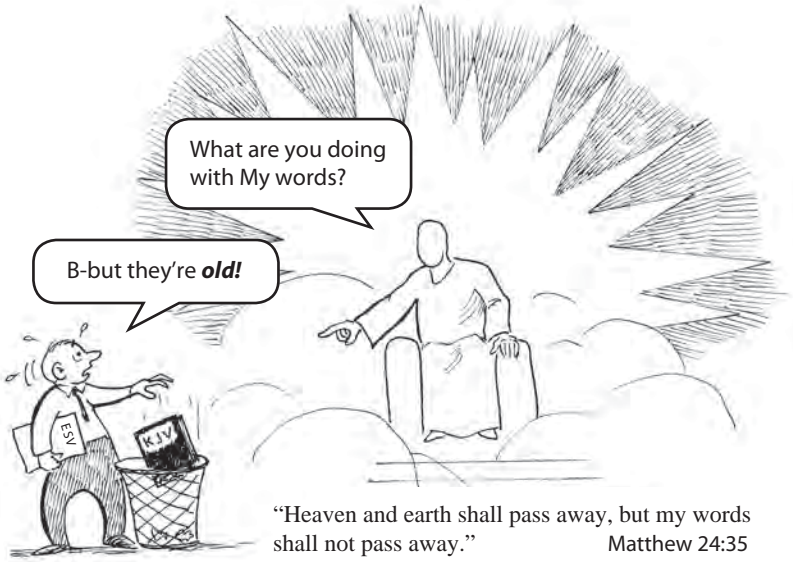

But some say it's "too hard."

Isn't it worth a little effort to unlock the treasures of God's storehouse of knowledge? I think so. That's why I wrote Yes You Can \(And You Should!\) Read the King James Bible. It encourages and shows the reader how to get started. Even the more experienced may increase his or her reading skills. I even added in the Bible Companion dictionary of less familiar words, some KJV-keyed Bible charts and a concise Bible timeline in the back.

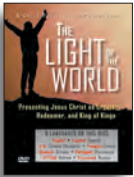

Gospel tracts can help save them. The King James Bible can give them understanding. These form a win-win combination that can shape the next generation. God bless you as you win souls!
