

Will This Pope Make Mary Co-Redeemer?

Pilgrims going to the Virgin of Guadalupe on their knees for forgiveness. The pope claims salvation through Christ alone, then directs the faithful to go to the Virgin Mary goddess to get it.

Canadian 'Hate Speech' Laws a Warning to U.S.

Canada is becoming an object lesson for those in the U.S. who are pushing to make "hate speech" illegal. A couple of years ago, Canada's leading newsweekly magazine, Maclean's, published an article arguing that the rise of Islam was a threat to western values.

Two members of the Canadian Islamic Congress lodged a complaint with The British Columbia Human Rights Tribunal. They claim that the magazine violated a provincial hate speech law by stirring up hatred against Muslims. After five days of hearings, the Tribunal is to rule on the case in a few days.

See 'Hate Speech'... page 11

Pressure is mounting on the new Pope Benedict XVI to "infallibly" declare the Roman Catholic Virgin Mary as "co-redemptrix, with Jesus the Redeemer, Mediatrix of all graces with Jesus the one Mediator, and Advocate with Jesus Christ on behalf of the human race."

When done, this will be the fifth "dogma" defining the position of the Virgin Mary goddess in Roman Catholicism. The others include "Mother of God," "Perpetual Virginity," "Immaculate Conception," and "Assumption" into heaven.

In the fifth century, the popes reasoned that since Jesus was God, Mary must be the "Mother of God" and deserved worship as such.

"Perpetual Virginity" is defined as continuing to be a physical virgin even after the birth of Jesus and thus having no children by her husband, Joseph. This also elevates her toward a position akin to divinity.

Homosexuals Hiding an 'Inconvenient Truth'

The homosexual juggernaut has seemed unstoppable but there is one "inconvenient truth" that they hope will never get widespread attention. The organization, American's For Truth About Homosexuality (AFTAH) is calling for a breaking of the silence on the health risks of homosexual practices.* AFTAH cites the Federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) reasons for banning male homosexuals from donating blood as proof of these risks.

FDA statistics are as follows: "Men who have had sex with men since 1977 have an HIV prevalence... 60 times higher than the general population, 800 times higher than first time blood donors and 8,000 times higher than repeat blood donors.... Infection with the Hepatitis B virus is about 5-6 times more common and Hepatitis C virus infections are about 2 times more common than in the general population...." Additionally, they have "an increased incidence and prevalence of Human Herpes Virus-8 [which] causes a cancer called Kaposi's sarcoma in immunocompromised individuals."

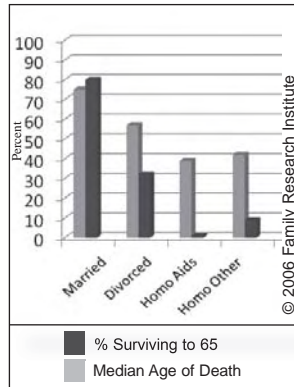

Sodomite Life Span Only 39 Years

Research by The Family Research Institute (FRI) of Colorado has discovered that the average lifespan of the male homosexual is only 39 years. Where 80% of married men lived past 65, only 2% of the homosexuals lived that long, as shown in the accompanying chart.

FRI found that sodomites "...were 116 times more apt to be murdered; 24 times more apt to commit suicide; and had a traffic-accident death-rate 18 times the rate of comparably-aged white males. Heart attacks, cancer and liver failure were exceptionally common. Twenty percent of lesbians died of murder, suicide, or accident—a rate 487 times higher than that of white females aged 25-44."

In their web site at <http://www.familyresearchinst.org/Default.aspx?tabid=73>, FRI details the disgusting and unsanitary sexual practices that contribute to this early death sentence. The "outing" of the homosexual lifestyle in our culture has unleashed over 50 sexually transmitted diseases (STDs). AIDS is just one of them.

In spearheading the drive to expose the health risks of what sodomites do, Peter LaBarbera, president of AFTAH points out, "While schools can and must protect every child from harassment and abuse, it is contradictory to promote homosexuality in the name of 'safety' because the evidence is so overwhelming that same-sex behavior is a serious health risk —especially for males."

School Forced to Help 9-Year-Old Boy Become a Girl

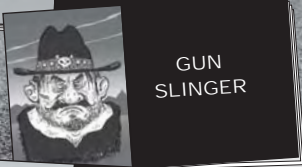

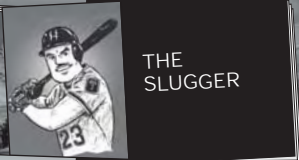

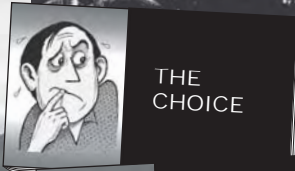

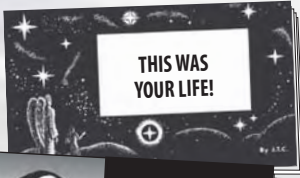

Schools are being forced by new state laws to teach that homosexual "families" are normal. The Philadelphia Inquirer recently reported that the Chatham Park Elementary School in Haverford Township is grappling with the problem of a 9-year-old 3rd grade boy who claims to be a "transgender." His parents asked the school "for help in

'The Seed Was Planted'

Daniel Rodriguez, author of Winning the Witnesses, received the following email from a former Jehovah's Witness. She had bought a copy and begun to use the witnessing strategy suggested in the book:

I used your method on three young girls this past Saturday. When I asked them if the Watchtower was "inspired" the older one, about 18-20 years old, said yes! I then asked if she understood what I meant by inspired, and she said she didn't understand. I explained and she still said yes! Then I asked that if that was so, then why did the predictions of the Watchtower not come to pass?

She looked right at me with a confused look. (The seed was planted!) She said she did not know that and I encouraged her to ask her elders about this and she said she would. I encouraged her to come back and talk to me anytime if she wanted to know more about this.

I used your strategy and they were so confused! I know that those seeds of doubt will bear fruit and I believe she and her little friends will all come to the saving knowledge of Christ. I have been praying for them.

Praise God, Daniel! I found this book absolutely accurate and your strategies are precise. Incidentally, the young JW that came to my house actually said to me when I asked her why [she trusted] the Watchtower: "Because the Bible is not meant to be taken literally!" She also said that we are not supposed to read the Bible because it is full of prophecies and we are not meant to interpret them.

That is the "canned" answer the Watchtower instructs the JW to give to "pagans." Like I said, I took control of the conversation using your strategies, and you are correct, my brother, it just threw her into confusion. Daniel, I believe that God gave you the tools to help bring these precious and sincere people out of that cult. I, being a former JW, can tell you that the Watchtower calls all shots! Thank you for your ministry. Many Blessings

Sally

Hi, I am 15 years of age, live in Canada. A couple months ago my uncle gave me a few of your tracts and I was really interested in them. I am a Christian and have been one from the age of 13. God convicted me that I was not sharing Christ with people and then I got these tracts. I started handing them out and I found out that they worked.

I now have tract racks with your tracts in a few stores and they are going like hotcakes. Everybody likes them and I trust that God is using them to save souls that are lost. Thank you for selling them because they definitely get read in this small town.
G.D. Canada

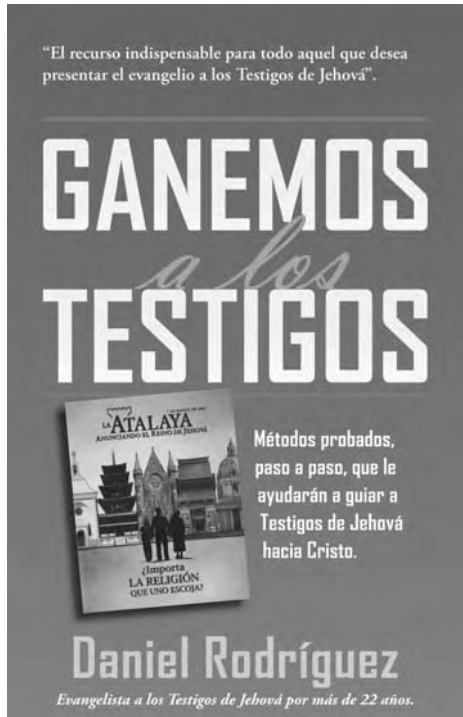

About seven years ago, my wife and I were in Florida on our honeymoon. We decided to stay for a while and live there. I was working on a refrigerated truck in front of a shrimp house one day, when a man came by and handed me one of your tracts. I was under the truck so all I could see was his legs and his shoes. He said, "Here read this when you get time. Have a nice day." I'll never forget the tract, it was The Sissy. I wasn't saved at the time, though we had started going to church right before we got married and were going at the time. When I got home that night I read it and said it!! I wanted to make sure I was forgiven and going to Heaven.

Since that time I have used your tracts to witness to others and have seen great results. November 15th God used me to lead my boss to Christ!!

Is Britain Finished?

Several reports coming out of Britain indicate a growing concern about the increasing influence of the Muslim population.

The Bishop of Rochester, the Rt. Rev. Michael Nazir-Ali, recently faced death threats after writing in The Sunday Telegraph that islamization was turning some communities into “no-go” areas for non-Muslims.

This was illustrated recently when two street preachers were witnessing in a Muslim neighborhood in Birmingham, England. They were told by the police that they could not preach there and that attempting to convert Muslims to Christianity was a hate crime. They were told to leave, and if they returned and were “beaten up,” that they had “been warned.”

Nazir-Ali also observed that Christianity had been replaced with “endless self indulgence” in British society, leaving a vacuum that Islam was ready to fill. He doubted British society had the moral and spiritual strength to resist this attack.

Other disturbing signs are showing up. Britain’s biggest teacher’s union is calling for the teaching of the Qur’an in the public schools.

One Catholic school, with over 90 percent Muslim students, is being petitioned by the parents to convert the school to instruction in Islam instead of Catholicism.

Archbishop Rowan Williams, head of Britain’s Anglican church recently stated publicly that it was “unavoidable” that some parts of Islamic law (sharia) would be introduced into British society. This law is the foundation of governments in Iran and Saudi Arabia that forbid all forms of Christian witness.

During the “Islamization” of a nation, at under 2 percent of the population, Muslims are viewed as a peace-loving minority. When they approach 5 percent, they develop enclaves or ghettos where non-Muslims are unwelcome.

They also begin to recruit among street gangs, prisoners and other discontents. France has 8 percent and has had hundreds of cars burned by street gangs. These “no-go” zones revert to rule by sharia law and government police often fear to enter.

At 10 to 20 percent, jihad militias begin forming, churches and synagogues are attacked, and riots occur over things like anti-Islamic cartoons and videos. Kenya and parts of India and Russia are in this category. Above 40 to 60 percent, unfettered persecution breaks out against all “non-believers,” with genocide and ethnic cleansing as in Albania, Bosnia and Lebanon.

The goal is to usher in “Dar-es-salaam” the Islamic House of Peace where everyone is Muslim. Saudi Arabia, Iran, Somalia, and Afghanistan are examples of 99-100 percent. Sharia rules, the Qur’an is the only Word and even possessing a Bible in these countries can be a capital offense.

Bishop Nazir-Ali also stated that “only Judeo-Christian values could stand up adequately against the threat posed by radical Islam.” He does not believe that Britain has enough of these “values” left to resist the attack. In the U.S., at one percent, we are seeing the grouping and resistance to assimilating into the rest of society. These become the seedbed for later efforts to ultimately take over the nation.

Is America Next?

The big question: Will America have sufficient “Judeo-Christian values” to resist? Of course, that all depends on the soul winners. Ministries that focus on Muslim societies are reporting many conversions, especially among the young people.

When they discover that the God of the Bible is a loving, forgiving God instead of a vengeful, unpredictable judge, like Allah, they often accept Jesus even though it sometimes means death at the hands of their own family.

making a 'social transition' for their child." The school sent "letters to parents advising them that the guidance counselor would meet with the school's 100 third-grade students to explain why their classmate would now wear girls' clothes and be called by a girl's name."

Soul winners, the sodomites will not stop until they silence every voice that dares to object to their destructive behavior. Most of all they want to stop anyone from stating God's opinion. Laws are in the works to do just that. Only a bold counterattack by Bible believers can stop them.

Silent No More!!

We are losing the battle against the sodomite agenda because of our silence. Most of us would rather not even think about this nasty subject much less talk to a stranger about it. But we had better start! Most non-Christians feel sodomy is wrong, but lack courage to speak up. If we will lead out, they will join the revolt against this steamroller, and we can put sin "out of the camp." We have to be the spark that starts the fire.

Chick Publications has two tracts that state clearly God's opinion of this abomination. They are Doom Town and Sin City. If every soul winner would place one of these tracts a day where others can read it, public opinion would begin to shift. We are going to lose our kids to this abomination if we don't start speaking up. But if we do, others will join us.

Popular Televangelist Humbled by Catholic League Forced to Deny Vatican Anti-Semitism

More evidence of the extensive involvement of the Catholic Church in American politics surfaced recently. Pastor John Hagee of Cornerstone Church, in San Antonio, Texas, was pressured to state publicly that the prostitute church of Revelation 17 and 18 is not the Roman Catholic church.

Hagee has written in his book, Jerusalem Countdown, that the Vatican sold out to Hitler and never protested the Holocaust.

Because of Hagee's large Christian following, he recently declared his support for Republican candidate John McCain. Catholic political activists immediately began demanding that McCain refuse the endorsement unless Hagee apologized for his "bigotry" and "intolerance."

Hagee agreed to meet with a group of Catholic leaders and afterwards issued a letter of apology to William Donohue, president of the Catholic League of Civil and Religious Rights.

In it he stated that, "After engaging in constructive dialogue with Catholic friends and leaders, I now have an improved understanding of the Catholic Church, its relation to the Jewish Faith and the history of anti-Catholicism."

He goes on to deny that the Roman Catholic institution is identified in Revelation 17 and 18 and state that he believes that Catholic "true believers" will go up in the rapture. He continues with high praise for popes John Paul II and Benedict XVI and Catholic and Evangelical cooperation in promoting "...primacy of faith and values in our increasingly secular society."

Hagee's "improved understanding" of the "history of anti-Catholicism" is pure Catholic revisionism of history. Rome has been working hard to cover its tracks both during the inquisition and in the 20th century.

Jack Chick, in his book, Smokescreens, documents both the horrors of the inquisition and the Vatican's intrigues during and after World War II. Tens of millions in Europe were massacred or executed in Rome's attempt to stop the Reformation.

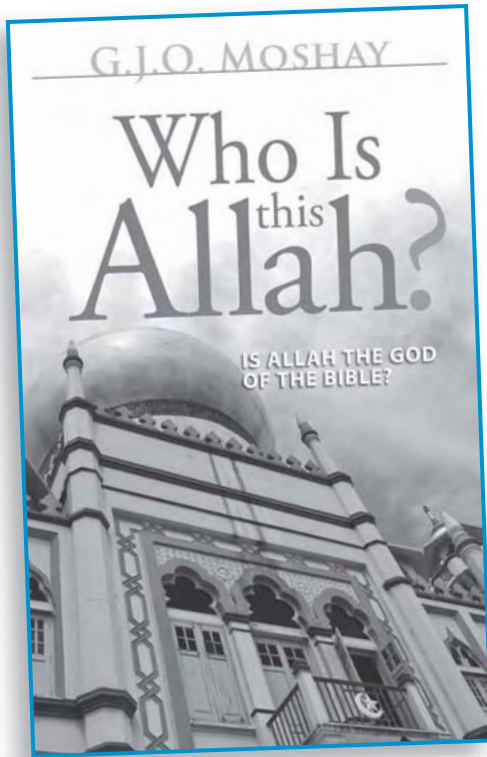

One of the more famous was the St. Bartholomew massacre in France. In one night, all the houses of the Protestants in the city were forced open and over ten thousand were slaughtered in just three days. In Ireland, another surprise attack was made on the Protestants after a time of peace and false security.

Also documented in Smokescreens and Secret History of the Jesuits, by Edmond Paris, is the Vatican's scheming behind Hitler in World War II. Detailed pictures show Nazi and Roman Catholic officials together with nuns and priests. Other pictures show brutal killings of those opposed to the Catholic-backed armies. But as soon as it appeared that Hitler would lose, the pope quickly switched his allegiance and came out "smelling like a rose."

America was founded by men fleeing the pope's wrath, but this part of our history has been buried or rewritten. Today's leaders are so poorly informed that they have no defense against Rome's sugar-coated lies.

While our government is focused on the Muslim threat to our way of life, another, more subtle evil is circling, also bent on destroying the freedom that Bible believers enjoy. Jack Chick says in Smokescreens: "Rome, when in minority is as gentle as a lamb, when in equality is as clever as a fox, and when in the majority is as fierce as a tiger."

Jesuit trained leaders and advisors are rapidly becoming a majority in our halls of government. John Hagee just experienced the fierceness of their wrath. Too bad he chose to buckle.

Is Allah the God of the Bible?

Volumes have been written about the religion of Islam. Much is also in print about Islam's founder and prophet, Muhammad.

However, very little is ever uttered about the God of Islam: Allah.

Why? Because most people assume that Allah and the God of the Bible are one and the same. World leaders often state this as fact, reinforcing this assumption.

But are they the same?

This well-researched book goes where most others don't, respectfully tackling this controversial subject, and revealing the emotionally-charged reasons why this topic is seldom mentioned —reasons that lead to the core of the religion of Islam, and to the heart of the difference between Islam and Christianity.

As you read direct quotes from the Qur'an, Hadith (Islamic traditions), and other reliable Islamic sources, you will learn why every Christian and Muslim needs to know... who IS this Allah?

“Immaculate Conception” defines her as without sin from birth, just as Jesus was. The reasoning is that, otherwise, Jesus would have been tainted by Original Sin. “Assumption” declares that she was taken directly into heaven, body and soul, just as Jesus was.

Now the push is on to further elevate this false redeemer into a position, for all practical purposes, co-equal with the divine Saviour. She will be in charge of dispensing God’s grace, and standing in for Jesus as mediator and advocate for mankind. Having reduced Jesus to a wafer god stored in a box, the popes have, instead, directed the worship of the precious Roman Catholics to this Virgin Mary goddess.

Thus we see the steps taken to elevate the lowly Mary of the Bible to a goddess-like position. For centuries, the Roman Catholic layman has been encouraged to pray to this Virgin Mary goddess instead of directly to God or the Lord Jesus.

With this fifth “dogma,” she will have effectively elbowed Jesus aside and assumed the central focus of attention for the one-billion-plus Roman Catholics trapped in the superstition and ignorance of this pagan false church.

This is just another step in Rome’s attempt to draw all religions under the pope. Most false religions have a female goddess central in their worship. If they can be persuaded that their goddesses are really this Catholic Virgin Mary, the pope can declare himself the head of all religions, stepping into position as the final anti-christ.

Chick Publications has books by more than one author who was once snared by the pope’s deceptions. From seven years old, Dr. Alberto Rivera was trained by Jesuits in secret plans to destroy the Protestant resistance to the advance of Roman Catholicism. These plans are detailed in the seven books in the Alberto Series Crusaders Comics Pack.

Another book exposing the deception of the popes is written by Charles Chiniquy, who spent 50 years as a Catholic. He grew up in Catholic home and became a priest. For many years he struggled between being faithful to the pope and obeying the Bible. His bishop demanded that he give up the Bible and submit completely to Roman tradition that contradicted the Bible.

Instead, he led his congregation out of bondage to the pope and into freedom in Christ. In spite of many attempts on his life, he was able to detail his struggles in his book, Fifty Years in the Church of Rome. He shows how Roman Catholicism has done the same as the Pharisees, by making the Word of God of none effect by their tradition. (See Mark 7:13.) Other books are also available to help you witness to the precious ones caught in this most subtle of deceptions.

Two Soul Winners Charged in Singapore

Voice Of The Martyrs reports that a couple of soul winners have run afoul of the “harmony” laws in Singapore. Ong Cheong and Dorothy Leng were distributing the Chick tract, The Little Bride. They have been charged with violating the Sedition Act for “promoting feelings of ill-will and hostility between different races or classes of the population of Singapore.”

They were also charged with violating the Undesirable Publications Act banning any material that depicts “race or religion in a manner...likely to cause feelings of enmity, hatred, ill-will or hostility between different racial or religious groups.” They were booked and released on $10,000 bail each and their passports were impounded. If convicted, they face maximum fines of $5,000 for each offence and up to three years in jail.

Muslim and sodomite activists in the U.S. are pressing for similar anti-discrimination and anti-harassment laws in both state and local governments. This is by far the biggest threat to soul winning. We need to pray, vote, and keep using tracts to find those who are open to the gospel.

'Hate Speech'...

If Maclean's avoids a penalty, they will be more fortunate than Pastor Stephen Boissoin in Alberta, Canada. A similar "Human Rights Commission" has sentenced him to a life of silence.

In 2002, he wrote a letter to the editor of the Red Deer Advocate, a local newspaper, opposing same-sex "marriage." A local homosexual activist filed a complaint with the Alberta Human Rights Commission. After a series of hearings, Pastor Boissoin was forbidden to speak or write "anything disparaging about homosexuals" for the rest of his life. In addition, he was required to submit an apology through the Red Deer Advocate and pay $5,000 to the offended activist who filed the complaint.

Canada, along with England, France, Germany, South Africa, Australia and India all have laws banning "hate speech." In fact, the U.S. is almost alone in major world nations with a strong constitutional guarantee of free speech and religion. Yet there is a move in our government to establish laws against "discrimination" that will trump the constitution.

The two cases above demonstrate how enforcement of these laws will play out. Instead of such cases being handled by the regular courts, these "Human Rights" commissions and tribunals are staffed by appointed bureaucrats who sometimes have little or no professional experience in freedom of speech or freedom of religion issues. Yet they have the power to bring civil charges against businesses and individuals requiring costly defense.

Two recent cases have surfaced in the U.S. In New Mexico, a Christian couple, who run a photo studio, politely declined to film a "commitment ceremony" for a lesbian couple.

The lesbians complained and forced the photographers to appear before the New Mexico Human Rights Commission. They were fined more than $6,600.

A couple of years ago in Southern California, the Pacific Justice Institute successfully defended Pastor Audie Yancey before the Antelope Valley Human Relations Task Force. He was charged with a "hate crime" for distributing gospel tracts referring to Allah and using the 9/11 attack on the towers as a talking point.

PJI argued successfully that no "crime" had been committed. However, if there had been "hate speech" laws in force, the verdict would, no doubt, have been entirely different.

In countries that have hate speech laws in place, both homosexuals and Muslims have been successful in silencing Christians who speak out against their agendas. Both of these groups have increasingly powerful friends in our government and courts. Anti-discrimination laws are in place forbidding any negative reference to homosexuality in our schools.

Colorado now has a law permitting transgendered men (men who claim they are really female) access to women's restrooms and locker rooms. Anyone who objects is subject to a fine and prison time.

Jesus said He had to work while it was yet day. Bible believers, we need to redouble our efforts. If we don't get busy winning the homosexuals and Muslims to Christ, they will continue to advance their evil darkness and shut down our freedoms that we take for granted.

Tract Passing in ‘Sin City’

By Tim Berends

Tim Berends is a Christian radio host and dedicated “tract passer.” He is currently focusing his tract ministry on the streets of Las Vegas, Nevada, “Sin City” as he calls it.

Here are some things the Lord has taught me here in Sin City (Las Vegas), as I’ve handed out tracts. First, I look on handing out tracts as something I get to do, not something I “have to do.”

But just how difficult is it for a person to go into a library or store and put a few selected tracts into the magazines, such as Free At Last or Unforgiven? into Ebony or Jet? Here are some other ideas:

- Put a copy of How to Get Rich (and Keep It) into Fortune or Gentleman’s Quarterly (GQ).
- Go into the autobiography section of the library or store and put This Was Your Life! following the last chapter of an individual’s book.
- Go into a foreign language section and put a particular language tract in books in that section.

Then there is the street work. The only competition I have are the folks “handing out” pictures of young women in lewd poses. I say of my tract: “It’s not porn!” and many times they will take it. But you don’t say that to everyone:

- You would say that to most women, although I’ve had some women say, “Then I don’t want it.”
- I would never say that to four college guys holding a beer. To them I would say, “This is for every Dallas Cowboys fan,” if they are wearing a Dallas Cowboys tee shirt.
- For a family with kids I might say, “Here’s something you can share with the children —and by the way, it’s not porn!”

A friend and I went into seven “massage parlors” here in Vegas with Chinese tracts. We never got past the head woman, but we trust the Lord that the tracts got to the young ladies, because He laid it on our hearts and He is “not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance” (2 Peter 3:9).

There is no set way to hand out tracts. The minute you “put God in a box” by thinking He only works one way, He jumps right out! The important thing for the Christian tract-passer is to be led by God’s Spirit.

Finally, I’ve met people who won’t hand out tracts, because “I can’t disciple every person I give a tract.” That’s where the blank space on the back of the tract comes in handy. Get a stamp with your church’s name, or maybe some good websites, such as www.pro-gospel.org (a great website for Roman Catholics). The Chick Publications website, www.chick.com, is already on the tract.

I interviewed a fellow for my radio show one time, who worked with servicemen in Southern California. I asked him about follow-up:

He said: “We have the best follow-up in the world.”

I asked, “What is it?”

He said, “It’s the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit can follow them to islands that we could never reach, countries we could never get to.”

I thought, “How true!” We should do as much as we can and leave the results to God. Let’s not leave the job of the Great Commission to our pastors! Our Lord has commanded all of us to be witnesses.

God bless you in your endeavors to reach a lost and dying world for Christ. I look forward to seeing you in heaven and hear how God has used you. What a day that will be!

Russian Protestants Again Under Fire

Since the collapse of the Soviet Union, western missionaries have had almost an open door to evangelize in Russia. Protestant congregations have been established and much humanitarian relief has flowed into prisons and orphanages. Protestant leaders rejoiced at this window of opportunity but knew in the back of their minds that it probably would not last.

During the Soviet era, all religions were outlawed, although many leaders of the Russian Orthodox cooperated with the government for survival. KGB agents also infiltrated the Orthodox ranks. Now, during the tenure of President Vladimir Putin, he has pushed hard to restore pride in Russian nationalism. Therefore, since the Russian Orthodox church has been the national church for several hundred years prior to the Soviet era, restoring its status and influence is a significant part of rebuilding national pride.

And since Russian Orthodoxy is a part of the ritualistic, priestcraft-centered block of false Christianity similar to Roman Catholicism, it is not about to tolerate the presence of true Bible believers. Satan's strategy of aligning a false religion with a totalitarian government is as old as Rome. True Christians have had to flee to the caves from this strategy for most of history. The few hundred years of religious freedom enjoyed in modern times is an exception in the overall scope of history.

Russian Christians are not alone in feeling pressure from governments to restrict soul winning. Laws against "proselytizing" are being enacted in most countries that have a government-favored religion.

Their greatest fear is soul winning because they see the superior spiritual power of the gospel over these satanic religions.

"IF SINNERS BE DAMNED,
AT LEAST LET THEM
LEAP TO HELL OVER
OUR BODIES. IF THEY WILL PERISH, LET THEM
PERISH WITH OUR ARMS
ABOUT THEIR KNEES.
LET NO ONE GO THERE
UNWARNED AND UNPRAYED FOR."
CHARLES SPURGEON

This is true of all the Islamic nations, the Hindu and Buddhist countries of the Orient and even Roman Catholic cultures. None of these can compete with the gospel in lifting people out of the bondage of sin.

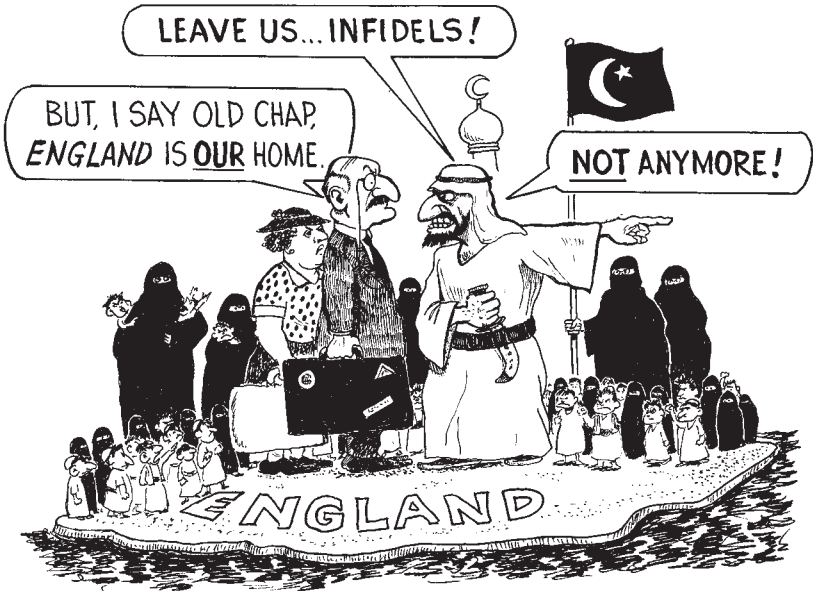

It is estimated that more than 50,000 Christians die each year for their faith.

American Christians enjoy a freedom and safety not available to most of the rest of the world.

Yet few have ever won a soul to Christ or even bothered to leave a gospel tract where someone might find it and get saved. Jesus said in John 9:4 that He had to work while it was day because the night was coming "when no man can work."

In fact, it was the Jewish religious leaders who persuaded the Roman government officials to crucify Jesus. Our times are similar. Attacks are mounting on our freedom to witness from sodomites, Islam and even Roman Catholicism.

Soul winners, we need to redouble our efforts and recruit others to join us!

Jolly Old England Isn't So Jolly Anymore

A Message from Jack Chick

Dear ones in Christ,

Recently, I was really stunned when one of our famous evangelists publically groveled before the Great Whore and claimed to the world that he was “misunderstood” about Roman Catholicism, that they were his “brothers and sisters in Christ,” and that he was sorry that he had implied that she was the Great Whore of Revelation. Was there an uproar from our valiant Protestant leaders for this strange flip-flop? Nope! Not even a peep.

I wonder what Martin Luther and the other reformers would have said about this? Anyway, Rome sneered in delight and the Catholic League got what they wanted. But to other Catholics this evangelist is still branded a “heretic.” Rest assured, he will feel their wrath in the future.

Beloved, nothing is as it appears. Remember the old Caesars of Rome, claiming to be gods, who hated born-again Bible believers? Well, over time the picture changed. But the Caesars ran the world then, and Caesar is still running the world from Rome today. He’s not wearing the old toga but now he is decked out in a religious costume and adored by the world. He still holds the title of deity, and, like the days of old, still controls the governments of the world.

You ask, who is this new Caesar? His name is Pope Benedict XVI! Surprised? He’s the most powerful man on earth. He controls the media, the politics, world events, the UN and almost all the churches. His organization brilliantly destroyed Protestantism with the ecumenical movement. God calls this political/religious cult the mother of harlots—the Great Whore in Revelation 17.

Oh! My goodness! Did I offend somebody? This prostitute church is sending over a billion precious Roman Catholics into hell through her religious lies, perverting and hiding biblical truth from her captives, promising them heaven only if they remain faithful to her evil religious system.

What does the Great Whore know of love and forgiveness? Those who leave the flock are called renegades, deserving death. One of the daughters of the great whore, Islam, is exactly like mama: death to those who leave.

God tells us, "Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works" (Rev. 18:6). God calls us to expose her bloody history and tell of the millions who have suffered and died by her hands (Eph. 5:11).

Rome is building a superchurch, pulling all churches and religions together for the antichrist. The great falling away (2 Thess. 2:3) is happening right before our eyes. Like that TV evangelist, the whole Evangelical movement is in danger of quietly crawling back to the Great Whore.

Thank the Lord Jesus for those men of God who are still brave enough to expose this monster from their pulpits, because "in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and all that were slain upon the earth" (Rev. 18:24).

Thousands of precious Roman Catholics have been saved and pulled out of this phony religious system through tracts and the Alberto comic books. Keep passing them out, beloved. We have to love them enough to warn them while there is time.

Your brother in Christ

Jack
