

Pope Using the Pandemic to Beat the Drum for Unity

Many of the powerful in this world are trying to leverage the coronavirus pandemic to their own advantage. Not the least of these is the Pope. Posing as the champion of Christianity he is proposing that: “The time has come to eliminate inequalities, to heal the injustice that is undermining the health of the entire human family!”

Pope Francis further commented, “Let us welcome this time of trial as an opportunity to prepare for our collective future. Because without an all-embracing vision, there will be no future for anyone.” The Pope also decried the possibility of a “selfish indifference” replacing the COVID-19 when it is tamed.

Pope Francis, on his visit to the United Arab Republic, is accompanied by the UAE Prime Minister Sheikh Mohamed bin Rashid Al Maktoum and Grand Imam Ahmad Al Tayyeb.

What Would Isaiah Say Today?

What would be Isaiah’s message to America today if he were available for God to speak to this generation? The United States may not be specifically named or indicated in Bible prophecy. However there are strong parallels between our nation and Israel’s history.

The establishment of America was a series of miracles both in military victories and construction of a form of government superior to anything the world has ever seen. What followed was a period of unparalleled prosperity.

Like America, Israel came through a series of miracles to arrive in the promised land. Their prosperity peaked during the reign of Solomon but morally and spiritually it was downhill from there. Moses cautioned them in his last memoirs against the danger of prosperity. He predicted that their hearts would turn away from the God Who had so miraculously blessed them.

When Israel was at the height of their

Pope Using Pandemic

The ideology behind these comments is directly in line with the pope's background as an Archbishop in Latin America. Terms like "inequality", "injustice" and "collective future" all expose the thinly disguised veneer over basic Marxism incorporated into Catholicism under the name of liberation theology. The most graphic examples of the results of this "liberation" is the complete destruction of Venezuela's prosperity and Cuba's lost generation to spiritual bondage.

As we march toward the era of the Antichrist, it is increasingly evident that Marxism will be the political dimension of the one-world government. It neatly incorporates some of Satan's basic lies. Foundational to all of it is atheistic evolution, which declares there's no need for God because man is mutating continually to a higher level of perfection and only needs the right environment to thrive.

Of course they believe that the easiest and best way to achieve that correct environment is to put the governments in charge of everything. The benevolent hearts of these elite leaders will then provide the security and prosperity for a whole new world order. Of course anyone who cares to object to this utopian dream will need to be left in the dust figuratively or literally.

The pandemic also showcased the Pope's dedication to ecumenism. He proclaimed May 14th as a global day of fasting and prayer and doing works of charity by "all believers together, believers of the different traditions." He has already come out as a proponent of an interreligious day of prayer. In 2019 he visited the United Arab Emirates where he cosigned with Sheikh Ahmed el-Tayeb, Grand Imam of Al-Azhar, a Document on Human Fraternity for World Peace and Living Together. This agreement called for global prayer events by all "believers" regardless of religious "tradition."

Such prayer "events" tend primarily to plead for God to step in, genie fashion, and fix our problems instead of deep repentance for the abominations that we throw in God's face every day. How long will we continue to "ask amiss" so that we can "consume it upon [our own] lusts"? (See James 4:3.)

Further evidence that Roman Catholicism is the true prostitute Church of Revelation 17 and 18 is another form of asking amiss: Prayer to Mary. Christian News Network posted a May, 2 article stating: "The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Canadian

#47 Conference of Catholic Bishops have joined together to 'consecrate' their nations to the care of Mary on May 1 and to ask that she intercede to Jesus during the COVID pandemic."

Of course the bishops were only following in the footsteps of the Pope who, early on in the pandemic, prayed at a shrine for Mary to twist Jesus' arm to stop the virus.

This unbiblical behavior demonstrates how far we have strayed from God's word. It is even more diabolical when you review the history of the modern Bibles and see the plot to gently, but firmly, shift the wording in favor of this counterfeit "church."

Soul winners, we have much work to do. Let's not let this time of confused hearts go to waste.

We Never Know What Will Happen

We were recently at a yard sale. I wasn't going to stop, but I felt led to by the Lord. I did not buy anything, but I did give a man named George a tract as I left. I gave him the tract "Un Camino" (One Way!) I gave him one in English and one in Spanish.

Then he said to me, "I was praying to God last night to show me the way and now you give me this 'One Way' tract." So then I took him step by step with the tracts and right there at the yard sale he repented and gave his life to the Lord Jesus Christ.

The next week I took him more tracts and the book of Romans. It was cool talking about the Lord Jesus Christ and praying at a yard sale.

S.G., TX

A former Catholic who was given a Chick tract years ago, said he became "bent out of shape." He said, "Chick tracts get through our crustiness and stubbornness and melt us." He found out that what he had been taught was not true... A priest had told him he could not "know" if he was saved, but he found that according to 1 John 5:13, he could know! Now, he is an avid soul-winner, planting Chick tracts in many, many locations!

prosperity, the leaders of surrounding nations came to see the blessing that God had poured out upon his people. They understood that it was because of obedience to God that they were so blessed.

America's prosperity has also been a great blessing to the Kingdom of God. Using a powerful Bible, revivals turned many, many hearts to righteousness. That same prosperity funded a worldwide missionary outreach that went a long ways to fulfilling the scripture that the gospel would be preached to all nations. (See Matt. 24:14.)

However, like Israel, a few generations of that prosperity have led to massive idolatry in America. The idolized sexual pleasure of the sexual revolution that began about 75 years ago led to the legalization of a number of sins: abortion, approval of sodomy and same-sex marriage.

Other idols include materialism (he who dies with the most toys wins); evolution (God is dead, and it is up to us to save the planet); celebrity worship in both entertainment and sports, etc.

After Solomon, the Kingdom of Israel was divided into two major sections. One got almost immediately into idolatry. The other section maintained a semblance of worship for a few generations longer. But eventually God did what He promised: if they profaned His land with innocent blood and failed to maintain personal righteousness in humility before Him as Creator, they would be evicted from His land to be scattered among the nations.

We have no way of knowing whether America will follow Israel's pattern in this regard. Under some rulers Israel would turn away from their idolatry for a while. Perhaps if we will challenge our churches to repentance, God will grant us a reprieve from the pattern of Israel's judgment.

America just had a National Day of

PLEASE HELP US KEEP PRICES LOW

Time studies show that it takes 5 to 8 times as long to prepare an order of tracts in opened packages (singles) versus orders in packages of 25. Since we must pay workers to do this hand-counting, it threatens to drive up the cost of Chick tracts. Please help us by ordering tracts in packages (25 per package).

Starting July 1, 2020, we must charge one cent extra (18 cents each) for tracts ordered as "singles" (less than full packages) to help us pay for the extra hand-counting. We understand there are times you just need a couple of copies of a certain title. You can still get them, for just 1 cent extra per tract. There is no price change for tracts ordered in packages.

Prayer. It was commendable that many of our national leaders were prominent in the ceremonies. However in the speeches and in a search of the media articles about it, the word "repentance" was noticeably absent. We are quick to quote 2 Chronicles 7:14. However the phrase "turn from their wicked ways" does not seem to register with us. Yet that is one of God's criteria for restoring His blessing.

With Israel, God's mercy did not turn to judgment overnight. There were many warning signs. Famine, pestilence, and bad weather plagued the agricultural-based economy. Some of their prophets used extreme measures to get their attention.

America has suffered greatly in the last few months. Some would dispute whether it is God's judgment. Yet it is hard not to

Nation's First High School LGBTQ+ Course In Maryland

Two high schools in Maryland are scheduling a pilot course on the “history and culture” of homosexuality. The Montgomery County Board of Education unanimously approved the development of the curriculum to be offered in the spring semester.

Activistmommie.com reports that Scott Murphy, director of secondary curriculum told the board members that there was a strong interest in the course. “During initial implementation, we would gather feedback and then come back to you about the success of the pilot to either open it up to all schools or to continue to revise the pilot course,” he said.

Board member Patricia O’Neill expressed pride in the community’s “commitment to equality.”

Several things are terribly wrong with this picture.

• First of all, if this is to be an unbiased “history” course, will it include some of the earliest history when God expressed His opinion about homosexual behavior at Sodom and Gomorrah?

• Will it include the pain and suffering by participants in this abnormal lifestyle from the high degree of sexually transmitted diseases (STDs)?

• Will it showcase the testimonies of the confusion and suffering of children who grow up in the shadow of two-dad or two-mommy “families?”

• Will it include the testimonies of the thousands who have been through the pain and mental agony of following that lifestyle and escaped from it by the power of the gospel?

• Will it include the sordid history of the lives of the leaders of the Roman Empire and the Apostle Paul’s opinion about such behavior in Romans 1?

• Will it mention that the suicide rate among homosexuals is many times that of the general population?

• Will it illustrate the mismatch of the anatomy and the consequences of misuse of that anatomy?

• Will it give a balanced view of the propaganda fostered by Hollywood that the “gay” lifestyle is enjoyed by beautiful people in contrast to the truth of the high violence, promiscuity and homicides of that lifestyle?

• Will it draw a parallel between the decay of previous cultures and the wholesale adoption of sin?

• Will it draw a parallel between child molestation and a propensity to homosexuality as an adult?

• Will it include any mention of the fruits of the “sexual revolution” as it has destroyed families, diverted young men’s attention away from the responsibilities of family life, and young women away from their natural nurturing of the next generation?

Another thing that is so horribly wrong with this picture is the absence of any of the school board members or public comments raising objections to this plan. Where were the Bible believers when these board members were elected? And where were they when this pivotal meeting convened?

The comment about the “commitment to equality” speaks worlds how skewed our moral sense has become. What other sins will we eventually consider “equal?”

“... lobbying for righteousness in the schools is a place in our own neighborhoods where our voices can be heard.”

Is it not enough that we have spilled 2 million gallons of innocent blood since legalizing the sin of abortion? Is it not enough that we now have over 50 different STDs more widely spread since legalizing sodomy? Is it not enough that we now have grown men in track meets outracing girls and then insisting they use the girl's bathrooms and showers?

The debate will be endless whether the coronavirus was God's judgment, but who can deny that we have strayed far from His prescription for a healthy culture?

When the school official gets around to "gathering feedback," Christian parents ought to be front and center there. We deplore the devilish drift of the government schools, but electing school boards and lobbying for righteousness in the schools is a place in our own neighborhoods where our voices can be heard.

And don't forget, another way to promote righteousness in your neighborhood is broad distribution of gospel tracts.

World Missions Changing

CBN News reports that a major shift in world missions is occurring with the new generation. During the last century the primary focus of missionary activity was from West to East and South. Now, increasingly, that is reversing.

Gospel seeds planted in the past have flourished into mature churches. These are now sending out missionaries to new mission fields as well as back to challenge the apostasy growing in the western world.

"So, from countries that used to be the focus point of mission, they have become the major players in mission," says Dr. Corne Bekker, dean of Regent University's school of divinity.

The U.S. is still the country sending the most missionaries, but more than half of the total worldwide come from South America, Asia, and Africa. "People are basically going from everywhere to everywhere," says Baylor University missionary expert Dr. Robert Woodberry.

One classic example is Mongolia. Tennessee-based Mission Eurasia is working with believers in Russia to send

I have been handing Chick Tracts out for many years now and I have used your ideas throughout many situations and what great responses :).

During this [pandemic], I found that putting them in plastic bags and wearing gloves broke the ice with a lot of people.

Also, I know people are consuming large amounts of alcohol due to the social distancing and I have found that putting them in the slots of beer cases has been very effective.

I want to praise the LORD for all you guys do to help our witness.

Jesus bless all of you for printing literally the best tract I have ever handed out. I can remember like it was yesterday: I was sixteen, ruffling through the attic, and found This Was Your Life and, although I didn't get saved until 15 years later, it had a profound effect on me and really never left me. [Little] did I know I would be handing the same tract out 17 years later.

God is so, so, so good.

Why Young Christian Leaders Are Losing Their Faith

By David W. Daniels

“Once I found that I didn’t believe the Bible was the perfect Word of God it didn’t take long to realize that I was no longer sure he was there at all.”

—Jon Steingard

He wasn’t the first to lose his faith in God. And he certainly won’t be the last. Here’s why.

Jon Steingard grew up in a loving Christian home. His world was church. He did as other Christians did: accepted Jesus into his heart, prayed and participated in ministry. He gravitated toward worship teams, and at 20 years old, joined a Christian band, Hawk Nelson, in 2004.

Many things about Christian culture made him uncomfortable. But what really got to him were the Bible questions he had and contradictions he found. He needed answers.

While discussing a Bible concern, his father-in-law thought the problem was from the King James. He said he felt that King James had “put his own spin” on issues, so “that version couldn’t fully be trusted,” advising Jon to “go back to the original Greek.”

Jon said “...you believe that modern translations can’t fully be trusted, because they are human, flawed, and imperfect? I am simply taking that thought to its next natural conclusion—that the original Greek is also human, flawed, and imperfect, and also can’t fully be trusted.”

His father-in-law said, “Well, if you believe that, what do you have left?”

“Exactly,” Jon replied.

Listen to Jon’s words. “Once I found that I didn’t believe the Bible was the perfect Word of God it didn’t take long to realize that I was no longer sure he was there at all... The implications of that idea were absolutely massive.”

It took a year of Jon working through depression before he made this public announcement. But what happened next should shock you.

Jon wrote, “I have had private conversations with trusted friends about my doubts, and discovered to my absolute shock that they are shared by nearly every close friend my age who also grew up in the church. I am stunned by the number of people in visible positions within Christian circles that feel the same way as I do.”

Jon was not the first. And he will not be the last. For years, I’ve said that this would happen. We are giving trusting young believers contradictory Bibles and justifying them. This leads them down the road of confusion, doubt, disbelief, and rebellion, often resulting in rejection of God or disbelieving in Him entirely.

Pastor, you were mentored by men who were grounded in the KJV, or their mentors were KJV men. Your faith is solid. But what will happen to the next generation?

In Deuteronomy 6:6-7 God said through Moses, “And these words ... thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children...” We have no excuse. We must learn the scriptures and pass on our faith to the next generation. In Nehemiah 8, people born in Babylon came to Jerusalem. Ezra read to them in Hebrew, and helpers “gave the sense” so they could understand the words. They didn’t change the words.

Customer Shares Witnessing Idea!

“Just this week, I went to a Chinese restaurant. When the waitress saw the tract in her language, she was so excited and said, ‘In Chinese!’ She started reading the tract right then. She was not so concerned about the tip, but about the tract being in her language. She brightened my day with her excitement.

The same thing happened last week in Orlando,

Florida at IHOP. The Spanish waitress was happy about the tract being in her language.

What amazes me most is the fact that the tip means nothing to them. It’s about them being able to read the tract in their own language. The Chinese waitress said she does not read English well, and for it to be in her language gave her great joy!”

Missions Fund Report

The coronavirus pandemic has created huge challenges for missionaries all over the world. As governments try to limit contact with people, it has been necessary to find new ways to get the gospel into the hands of millions who have no hope, only fear.

One of the most popular methods being used is the preparation of food packets for those trapped in their homes, unable to work to feed their families. In Ghana, missionary Abel Veennema uses the tracts you provided as he speaks in schools, and goes door to door with the gospel. During Ghana's pandemic lockdown, they made 700 food parcels to help families in need. As you can see in the photo, a Chick tract went into each one. Stuck in their homes, people will definitely have time to read them.

In Guatemala, missionary Walter Sayers and his wife did not let the pandemic stop their outreach. You provided 30,000 copies of Spanish "The Long Trip" for two city-wide outreaches. Since Guatemala has no post office, getting the tracts to them was a challenge. But God provided a way, and Sayers reports they were "very effective." Sayers wrote: "we led a gang leader to the Lord right there in front of his members and it was amazing to see him transform right in front of our eyes. His name is Hugo." In this picture, Sayers and his wife discuss Jesus with a couple on the street after giving them tracts.

Pat Caspary, sent out of Redding, California, is using the same method as other missionaries during the pandemic . . . delivering food with tracts. In the picture to the right, every one of these food bags delivered by his team in Thailand has a Chick tract in it. And they will get read!

Brazil	Guyana	Netherlands	South Africa
Chile	Hong Kong	Papua New Guinea	Spain
Colombia	India	Guinea	Switzerland
Congo	Israel	Philippines	Trinidad
Costa Rica	Italy	Poland	Zambia
Ethiopia	Japan	Portugal	Zimbabwe

More tracts are now being shipped for additional projects, with more requests coming in from missionaries!

Will you help?

In this picture, taken in Ethiopia just before the pandemic hit, every one of these precious children is holding a Chick tract, thanks to you! They were provided through Zwedu Tefera, associated with Compassion International.

As this was being written, another 100,000 tracts were being delivered to People's Baptist Ministry of India, led by G.S. Nair, for their nationwide outreaches. Even though it is a Hindu country, with a government hostile to the Gospel, believers there are willing to take the risks and persecution that goes along with witnessing. Pray for them!

As you can see, the work continues to go on. Some parts of the Philippines are opening up again, and shipments have resumed there. Every day, more people pass into eternity. We are in a race!

Losing Their Faith... from p. 8

God gave no mandate to “dumb down” the Bible. Instead we were to raise up godly offspring schooled in His words.

Do you want to leave behind a legacy of faith and understanding of God's words in English? Or one built on contradictory Bibles that leave disillusioned believers, or even unbelievers, in their wake?

Please decide now, before we see a lot more tragic cases like Jon's.

The wrong legacy led to the NKJV, a “transition Bible” designed to get people away from the preserved words of God, to the more corrupt Bibles. See New King James - the Bridge Bible: A Path from Faith to Doubt.

1979—A Thomas Nelson V.P. called it: "... a transitional bridge, to get your people away from the King James Bible, so that ultimately you can move them to a better, more accurate Bible."

dozens of Russian teams to Mongolia holding camps for thousands of children. Many have never heard of Jesus. Mongolia statistics tell the story: At the time of the fall of the Soviet Union, there were only 10 believers in the entire country. Twenty-six years later, there are 60 thousand spread across the vast area.

Mission Eurasia leaders believe that the future of the former Soviet countries, as well as Russia, is more in the hands of the next generation of Christians than the political leaders.

Pew Research estimated that the hunger for God in the entire sub-Saharan Africa is greater than any other place on the planet. Another estimate placed Iran as the country with the fastest-growing underground church. Brazil recently hosted several conventions attended by 140 thousand who pledged to dedicate their lives to the Great Commission. They were joined by three million more online making the same pledge.

More evidence of the progress of the gospel is the increased persecution in India and China. Hindus perceive a threat to their power and are beginning to attack congregations and pastors. Believers in the underground Chinese churches are said to number between 60 and 100 million. The communist government is beginning an open crackdown, jailing leaders and bulldozing buildings.

Intriguing stories are slipping out of the Muslim world of quiet believers who risk their lives if they are known to have left Islam. Many undercover notice that much of the suffering has been in areas where we have gotten farthest away from God.

These are sobering times, soul winners. The message of the Old Testament prophets was not very well received. But “missionaries” are the foreign workers from the Philippines and other Asian nations, hired as domestics and teachers to the wealthy Muslims.

The danger is so high that even rough estimates are hard to come by. With Satan’s barrier against the gospel so tight, we even have stories of Jesus, Himself, invading the land. Some with an honest and hungry heart have had the Lord appear in their bedroom.

Israel, almost inadvertently, has had a positive effect here. It is a small island of prosperity and freedom in the vast sea of Islam’s spiritual oppression. With the broad permeation of the social media technology, the common people are becoming more aware of their lack of freedom. Many political leaders are attempting to crack down against the threat to their power. They are finding that brutality is no match for Biblical love.

Chick Publications has been pleased to share a small part in this missionary effort. Millions of tracts have flowed into the Philippines, India, and even China before the recent clamp-down. Throughout history gospel tracts have had a significant part in revival and missionary efforts.

Several years ago, tract users in this country kept asking how they could supply tracts to missionaries. We set up a small fund for donations and it has grown to supply large numbers to missionaries who found that they greatly extended their outreach.

that did not deter them from their calling. Lady Liberty is groaning under the weight of our sin. But true repentance is the only thing that will lift that weight.

And the call to repentance is so easy with gospel tracts.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Due to the recent pandemic, and the quarantining of well people in their homes, we are in information overload! Every point of view under the sun is on our computers and cell phones, though with few exceptions, mostly one point of view is presented on the television.

How can anyone find out the truth in the midst of so much noise?

Some are saying that we must trust the WHO (World Health Organization) and the CDC (Centers for Disease Control). Others are saying we must trust anyone but the WHO and the CDC.

Who can we believe?

“...let God be true, but every man a liar;” (Romans 3:4) That’s God’s perspective. Does God say we are supposed to be panicking? What did Jesus say? “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.” (John 16:33)

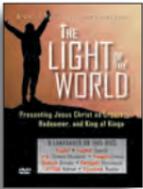

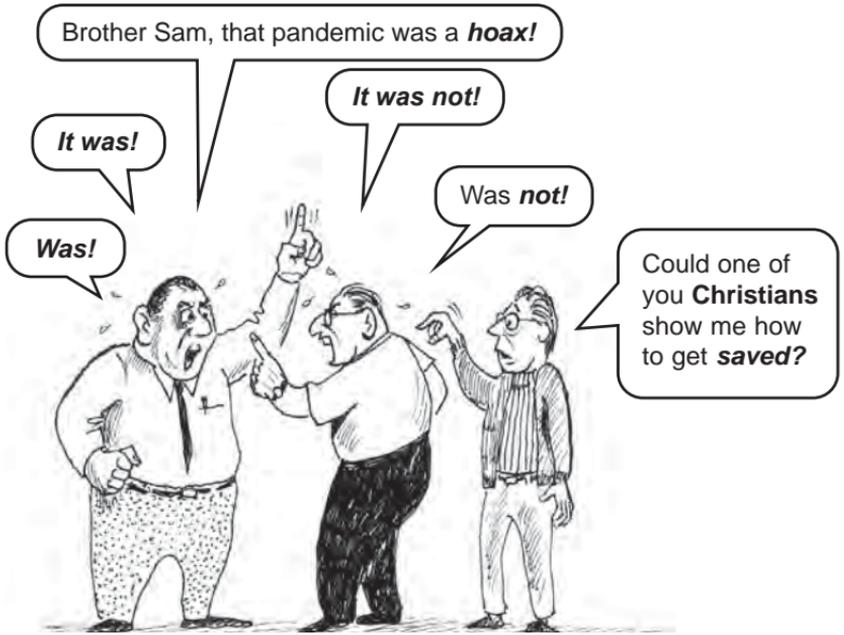

But what are we supposed to be doing while the rest of the world is panicking? Jesus said “...Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.” (Mark 16:15)

And even when you cannot have a long conversation, you can place a little missionary in their hand: a basic gospel tract. That’s why I stuff my pockets with Chick tracts, a few each of as many different titles as I can. Then I pray for which one to give to whom.

Someone can say “No,” but he or she is more likely to say “Yes,” or even “Thank you.”

Isn’t it worth that tiny risk, to share in saving a soul for whom Christ died? It is for me, and many of you. God bless you all, as you spread Christ’s message of peace (with God) in the midst of panic.

In Christ Jesus, and for His service, David Daniels
