

Is This Satan’s Counterfeit Revival?

Bible believers know that revival is the only real answer to the corruption and debauchery that has blossomed in the Western World. Until men’s hearts are changed by the Holy Spirit, government policy-making and social justice campaigns are no match for the evil imaginations that men are capable of.

At nearly the same time as the Republican Convention in Minneapolis, another 50,000 people gathered in Indianapolis for a “Eucharistic Congress,” part of a new national Roman Catholic program called the “Eucharistic Revival.”

So, is this “Eucharistic Revival” a step in the right direction by this supposedly Christian Church?

The Eucharistic Congress was the See Counterfeit p. 3

Growing Desire for God in America

Are you ready to throw up your hands over the state of America? Do you feel like everything is on a downward slide that can’t be stopped? Well, you’re certainly not alone. The newest generation of adults is inclined to agree with you.

Gen Z adults grew up with a pandemic, wars, economic downturns, and overall instability in their short 18-21 years. Gone are the rosy tinted glasses. Instead, they realize that humanity is fundamentally broken. In fact, much of America is coming to realize this truth and look for an answer.

Due to the Covid pandemic, people are thinking about big questions like, Why are we here? and Is there a God? Why do bad things happen and what can we do about it? Fortunately, this line of questioning gives us an open door to share the gospel!

Recent data from the Barna Group reveals that over 77% of Americans say they believe in some form of higher power, with 44% showing increased openness to exploring spiritual beliefs.

Among Gen Z teens, another 77% percent of those exposed to Christianity See Desire p. 7

California a Lab Case for Sexual Perversion

California has just passed a new law installing another layer of bricks in the wall between children and their parents. It deals with the situation when youngsters show up at school with the idea that they can somehow change their gender.

In a sane world the culture would refuse to go along with the fantasy. Eventually, the child would get his head on straight, as most do when they are allowed to grow up normally.

Privacy Rights For a 10-Year-Old?

But California legislators have concocted their own fantasy that a 10-year-old would be better off if given adult rights and privacy that parents have no business knowing about. University-trained teachers and counselors are often complicit in suggesting this fantasy to the child and stand by to cheer them on.

But when “Johnny” came home asking questions about some sexual stuff in a library book, alarmed parents began storming the school board meetings demanding to know what was going on. At first, they could not believe the stone wall that met them.

When they finally got the facts, they realized that they could not change the policy unless they changed the people. More parents joined them and managed to vote out the recalcitrant board members. This disturbed officials at the State Board of Education and teachers’ unions, who began installing regulations in an attempt to protect Johnny’s “right” to wear a dress if he wished.

Power of the Ballot

Through the power of the ballot, parents teamed up and created a backlash against this grooming of their children. Now they are facing the big guns of California lawmakers who are totally dedicated to putting the state in control of the next generation.

When the newly elected school boards begin laying down policies protecting the parents’ rights to guide their children into adulthood, state lawmakers countered with laws overriding those policies. This new law called “The Safety Act” (AB 1955), recently signed by Governor Newsom is complex, but it appears to tell teachers they can simply ignore any such local policies.

Feds get involved

On the federal level the House of Representatives has punted with a Parents Bill of Rights Act, HR 5, supposedly designed to counter this Socialist campaign to put the government in charge of our kids. The House has approved HR 5 and passed it on to the Senate where it has been ignored for over a year and a half.

However, it appears that this federal bill deals primarily with providing parents with information about policies that permit biological males to participate in female sports and invade female spaces. It only requires parental consent to change “gender markers, pronouns, or preferred name on school forms,” for grades 5 through 8.

A More Fundamental Attack

An even more sinister scheme is in the making. In 2008, voters in California approved Proposition 8 amending the state constitution to read that “only marriage between a man and a woman” was legal in the state. Bitter court fights followed until the US Supreme Court overruled all the local laws by making same-sex marriage legal nationwide.

But the California constitution culmination of a National Eucharistic Pilgrimage where the wafer-god was mounted on a sunburst monstrance and paraded through major cities in the US. These pilgrimages and congresses are fairly common in Roman Catholic countries. But the last ones in America occurred over 80 years ago.

Since this “revival program” originated from the Catholic “church,” a generally accepted Christian “denomination,” should Bible believers join the effort?

To begin, how does this “Eucharist” fit into genuine revival? Different religious groups have significantly different interpretations of the doctrine of the Eucharist commonly known in Protestant circles as communion. Most agree that it originated at the Last Supper that Jesus had with His disciples just before He was crucified.

The Apostle Mark’s gospel quotes Jesus as saying, when He broke off pieces of bread for the disciples: “Take, eat: this is my body.” Then he passed around the wine cup stating: “This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.” (See Mark 14 and Luke 22.)

In the centuries that followed, there grew up a considerable divide over the interpretation of these short statements. At first there was no historical indication that it was believed to be anything other than symbolic of what His death on the cross represented.

The book of the Acts of the Apostles and the letters from the Apostle Paul to the churches do not seem to support any other interpretation. Yet in the early centuries, a quite different view emerged. It denied that the bread and wine were simply symbols to help us remember Christ’s sacrifice for our sins and the new covenant of redemption through that sacrifice.

Roman Catholicism began to teach that their leaders had special powers to convert the bread and the wine into the actual body, blood, and divinity of our Savior. This became known as the doctrine of the Real Presence and lifted the whole proceedings into an entirely different realm.

If the bread was now the actual body of the Savior, it required a complete makeover. It became known as the “Host” with a very specific recipe that included wheat flour. The Catholic Church also claimed that the wafer was now Jesus and should be venerated and worshiped.

This is the history surrounding the central focus of the Eucharistic Pilgrimages and the recent Eucharistic Congress. But there is more to the story.

There was a time several hundred years ago when this “denomination,” the Roman Catholic Church (that still preaches the Real Presence view), declared that those who refused to accept that the wafer was now Jesus, were heretics and torched many of them at the stake. Not until the 1960s did they switch the terminology from “heretic” to “separated brethren.”

In the last 60-year blip in history, this “denomination,” this Roman Catholic “Church,” has succeeded in “cancelling” centuries of history of hostility to the scriptures and Bible believers. Satan’s henchman do not give up easily.

This reviving in the U.S. of the pilgrimages and Eucharist-focused conventions should trigger alarm bells. The switch from “heretic” to “separated brethren” is only window dressing. The popes have done nothing to realign Roman Catholic teachings with the preserved words of God.

This “Eucharistic Revival” campaign is nothing other than a cunning diversion from true biblical repentance. Satan is again stirring up his counterfeit “church”

Oceans of Evidence Point to a Marvelous Creator

By Sherrie Johnson

The next time you drink a glass of water, consider how finely engineered the liquid in your glass has been to support life. Water is no ordinary substance. It is a unique creation that we literally cannot live without.

Michael Denton, an agnostic biochemist from Britain, was surprised to find that water is so perfectly suited to life on earth. His research forced him to admit that “no other liquid could replace water in this role.”

We Are Dead if Ice Didn't Float

Take a look at the ice floating in your glass. Do you know that you and I wouldn't be here if ice didn't float? If water was heavier when frozen, ice would sink to the bottom of our lakes and oceans, killing everything that swims. Instead, floating ice forms an insulating blanket, protecting life beneath it, even in the harshest winters.

Once you drink that water, your heart could not pump the blood if the water was only a bit thicker. The blood's precise viscosity is just right to transport nutrients, remove waste, and facilitate countless biochemical reactions. Any change in this balance would be fatal.

Stabilizes Body Temperature

Thanks to water's ability to evaporate and insulate, you can go outside without overheating in the sunshine or freezing in the cold. Water acts as a thermal buffer, stabilizing our internal temperature against extreme fluctuations. It absorbs excess heat, prevents overheating, and ensures that our body temperature remains within the optimal range. This property alone ensures that we can live and thrive in the desert or the Arctic.

Even Thinking Requires Water

Without adequate water, our bodies couldn't absorb nutrients, digest food, or move with ease—even the act of thinking would slow down and eventually stop altogether. The very essence of our cognitive and physical functions hinges on water's unique properties.

As Michael Denton found, it isn't just one or two properties of water that sustain us. He discovered that “innumerable properties of water are supremely fit to serve diverse ends critical for life.”

Water's Trinity

The next time you drink water, look outside. What's the weather like? Did you know that the water in your glass used to be snow on top of a mountain? Water can exist as liquid, solid, and vapor and it takes all three forms before you drink it.

Water starts as liquid in oceans and rivers. As the sun heats the water it evaporates into purified vapor stored in clouds. Clouds then move over land where it rains

Keller, President of California Family Council explained, "The absence of any clear definition of marriage is alarming and paves the way for the legalization of polygamy, child marriage, and incestuous relationships."

For example: two California cities have already passed legislation barring discrimination against polyamorous "families" with multiple people in a consensual romantic relationship. This ACA 5 change in the California constitution would legitimize such relationships. Under that wording, someone could probably marry their dog.

Homosexual Virus

This all hangs on the question of whether the parents are going to allow the state to destroy the innocence of our children, introducing a perverted view of sex instead of God's divine plan for marriage. While many Christians were napping, the homosexual virus has infected most of the schools, libraries and some churches.

Fortunately, some parents are waking up, banding together with trusted leaders and legislators to fight back. Some of those who didn't wake up in time now weep for their grown-up children who have already been drawn into some twisted sexual perversion.

World Government —How Far are We?

Today, some believe that we are watching the final contest between good and evil that the Bible talks about. End-time prophecy indicates that Satan will be at the heart of that struggle to set up a global religion and a global political system.

Since the birth of Roman Catholicism, most of the popes have taught that they need to be recognized as the world's spiritual head.

A Politics For The World

And in recent decades the popes have increasingly supported a global political philosophy codified by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels. Their writings floated to the surface of the philosophical, religious, and economic whirlpool of the "enlightened" 19th century. From the Marxism root sprang our modern Socialist, Communist, Collectivist, Progressive steamroller.

On cue, the 20th century saw this whirlpool expand to threaten the entire world. Russia was the first major country captured by Marxism. It came under the label of Communism because it purported to be a communal economy where everyone technically owned everything, held in trust by the elites in an all-powerful central government.

Flawed Humans

China and a number of lesser countries also fell under the spell of this "revolution" against the supposed (and often real) oppression of their existing political masters. But the Communist leadership was made up of equally flawed humans. The new masters were just as power-hungry and the oppression in most cases became more extreme.

But Marxism's expansion provided a political power base that could be focused on subjugating the rest of the world. After several decades of saber rattling, modern technology provided a more subtle and effective psychological warfare.

Early Red Flags

As early as the mid-20th century, alert observers saw this shift and began waving red flags. One historian was W. Cleon Skousen. His 1958 book "The Naked Communist" sold widely and carried many accurate warnings.

One famous chapter in the book was called "Current Communist Goals" and listed 45 devilish strategies to achieve those objectives. Over the years, many have been alarmingly successful.

- Number 16: Use technical decisions of the courts to weaken basic American institutions [like Biblical marriage] by claiming their activities violate civil rights.
- 17: Get control of the schools. Use them as transmission belts for socialism and current Communist propaganda. Soften the curriculum. Get control of the teacher's associations. Put the party line in textbooks.
- 19: Use student riots to foment public protests against programs or organizations which are under Communist attack.
- 20: Infiltrate the press. Get control of the book review assignments, editorial writings, and policymaking positions.
- 21: Gain control of key positions in radio, TV and motion pictures.
- 24: Eliminate all laws governing obscenity by calling them censorship and a violation of free speech and free press.
- 26: Present homosexuality, degeneracy and promiscuity as "normal, natural, and healthy."
- 27: Infiltrate the churches and replace

see value in learning more about Jesus. Nearly half of American teenagers think of Jesus as a source of hope, trustworthiness, and care. Now, that's some good news!

Here's even more. Non-Christian parents and public-school administrators are beginning to see the need and benefit of religious education. Students can't attend religious classes on public school grounds, so released-time programs are starting to pop up nationwide. These programs provide off-campus religious instruction during the school day.

LifeWise Academy, an Ohio-based Christian ministry, began offering a released-time Bible education program to two schools in 2019. This year, LifeWise expects enrollment to hit 30,000 students across 300 schools and 11 states! When asked about the success of providing public school students with Christian education, LifeWise founder and CEO, Joel Penton, stated, "Most schools and parents are very open to the idea. Schools know there is a great need in the lives of students."

Influencers and notable businessmen are also starting to see where the world is headed. Some are looking for hope in the right places. Elon Musk, founder of SpaceX and Tesla, recently expressed his belief in Christianity's beneficial principles. He notes that they contribute significantly to human happiness both now and in the future. He said, "I'm a big believer in the principles of Christianity. I think they're very good... [Christian principles] result in the greatest happiness for humanity, considering not just the present, but all future humans."

Even the corporate world is seeing the importance of spiritual guidance. Religion was once taboo in the workplace. Today, the Religious Freedom and Business Foundation reports more than 85% of Fortune 500 companies now include religion in their commitment to diversity.

These companies are becoming "faith friendly." Places where you might have been told to be quiet or lose your job, are now offering religious accommodations and spiritual care options.

It sure sounds like there's a mission field out there! Every generation recognizes that the world has a problem. Their openness and desire for answers give us an opportunity to get the gospel out like never before. Many are turning to the internet, their neighbors, coworkers, and influencers to direct them to the answer. We can help with that.

Instead of throwing up our hands in despair, let's fill our hands with tracts like This Was Your Life and The Long Trip. Let's pass them out to everyone we see. We might just be the one to offer the hope of the gospel that people are looking for desperately.

revealed religion with “social” religion. Discredit the Bible and emphasize the need for intellectual maturity which does not need a “religious crutch.”

- 28: Eliminate prayer or any phase of religious expression in the schools on the ground that it violates the principle of “separation of church and state.”
- 29: Discredit the American Constitution by calling it inadequate, old fashioned, out of step with modern needs, a hindrance to cooperation between nations on a worldwide basis.
- 31: Belittle all forms of American culture and discourage the teaching of American history on the ground that it was only a minor part of “the big picture.”
- 32: Support any socialist movement to give centralized control over any part of the culture—education, social agencies, welfare programs, mental health clinics, etc.

or snows. Snow melts back into the oceans, rivers, and lakes and —and into your drinking glass. If God didn’t give water all three characteristics, life on Earth would not have been possible.

At the end of his research on the miraculous nature of water, Denton determined that, “life on Earth and indeed beings of our advanced terrestrial design must have been in the mind of the designer from the moment of creation... In other words, we were meant to be, and from the dawn of time.”

While Denton concluded that there is a designer, we can confidently walk in the Truth knowing Who the Designer is. After all, Genesis 1:1 leaves no doubt:

- 36: Infiltrate and gain control of more unions.
- 40: Discredit the family as an institution. Encourage promiscuity and easy divorce.
- 41: Emphasize the need to raise children away from the negative influence of parents.

Allowed By A Vacuum

This is just a sampling of the full list from Skousen’s book, but it is easy to see how it fits Satan’s big plan. The progress in these areas that we see today, crept into the vacuum left by the elimination of the Bible and its principles in government, education and the family.

America’s prosperity is the direct result of obeying these biblical principles. We are already seeing significant degradation of our standard of living.

Soul winners, we need to watch and pray—and work at reminding everyone who will listen how late the hour is.

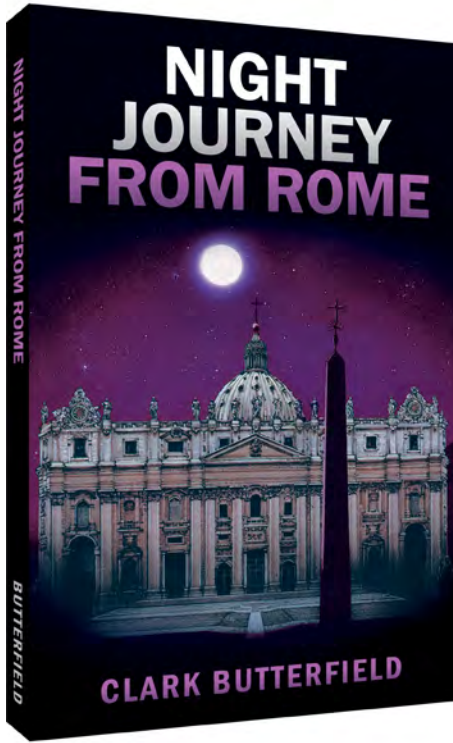

Historically, saturation with no-nonsense gospel tracts has been very useful for this.

“In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.”

That glass of water tastes even better now, doesn’t it? A simple glass of water is an extraordinary testimony of God’s exquisite craftsmanship. By speaking all of creation into existence, He created an environment unlike any other in the universe uniquely able to sustain life.

Would you know what to say if someone questioned you about Earth’s origins? Equip yourself to answer some of the most commonly asked questions by reading Vance Ferrell’s The Evolution Handbook. And be ready on the go with copies of tracts, Big Daddy and And It Was Good!

- Who Can Forgive Sins?
- And much more!

“Catholic guilt” is often not understood by non-Catholics. Having no assurance of salvation, Clark Butterfield hoped if he became a priest, “maybe this would clinch the deal.” Instead, he found only disappointment.

Item by item, Butterfield eloquently describes his crisis of conscience. He knew what his church taught (and which he was required to teach). But, alas, he also knew the Scriptures, and they didn’t agree!

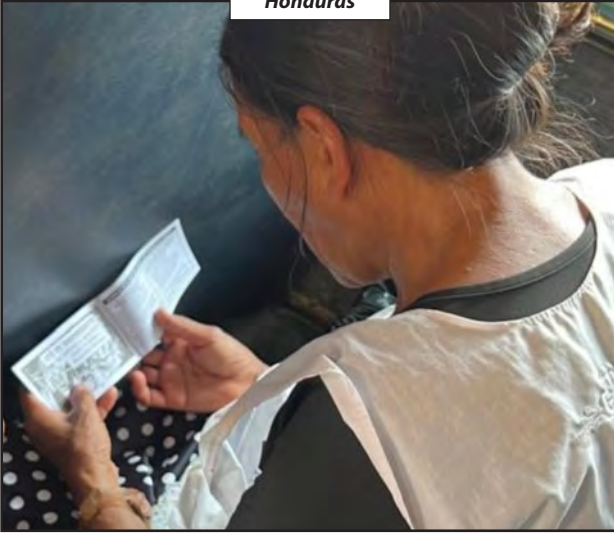

As Butterfield takes you gently through his dark night of doubt, and describes what the true Scriptures teach about Mary, salvation, who can forgive sins, communion and other Catholic doctrines, he gives you great ideas to explain these truths to other Catholics.

Here is what happened since the last Battle Cry:

Philippines

We are getting close to completion of the next container of tracts headed to this country. Before this month is over, we expect to ship 1.3 million Chick tracts for the many ministries waiting for them.

Italy

After serving as missionaries in southwestern Slovenia, Daniel and Christian Norton have returned to take over the work they used to pastor in Aviano, Italy. Although this is primarily a military ministry, they are determined to do more evangelism among the local Italians. They have requested 30,000 Italian Chick tracts for this ministry.

San Luis Rio Colorado - With the large number of migrants moving north through Mexico toward the U.S., the soul-winning opportunities are bigger every week! Paul Buskager, of First Light Mission, is working to reach the masses here, one city at a time.

He writes about the next outreach: “We will be reaching the border city of San Luis Rio Colorado. I’ve spent last week there organizing with four pastors and one evangelist to do a city-wide outreach for tract distribution and preaching nightly. The pastors are very excited about mass distribution of Chick tracts. We are moving westward towards California. We’re trying to reach every major border city over the next 18-24 months Lord willing.”

With your help, we plan to print 150,000 Spanish Chick tracts for them.

Todd and Yola Eklund are still very active with evangelism in the Mexico City area. We just shipped them 9,000 more Chick tracts.

Operation Compassion - Missionary Gary Schwer just received 50,000 Chick tracts for this annual outreach giving the gospel and backpacks to school children in many small towns of Mexico.

South Africa

Missionary Mike Fluech, who received English and Chichewa tracts, shares his experience: “More often than not, people stop what they’re doing when they receive it and start flipping through it immediately.”

He reports that they have had people come to their church and mention that they learned about it through one of those tracts.

United Kingdom

The Korean evangelists of Cross Mission continue their dedication to evangelism here, spreading Chick tracts all over the greater London area. Thanks to your giving, 50,000 Chick tracts just went to resupply them. It’s sad that the country that gave us the King James Bible is now a desperate mission field. Many there have never heard the simple Gospel.

Germany

In years past, Missionary Richard Weimer and his team have passed out calendars during the pre-Christmas season (they call it “Advent”). But this year, he found that the message of the calendars had been “weakened,” so he wants to pass out Chick tracts instead. Your giving just provided him with 10,000 tracts in German and 10,000 in Czech (they are near the Czech border). There will be a straight Gospel message this year!

Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

There is so much corruption and debauchery in the world! No one can deny it. No government policy or social justice campaign can fix it. What we need is people to be changed by the power of the Holy Spirit through the gospel. When Christians experience revival, laws change. Soul winners reach more people for Christ. People want to be saved! True revival can change a nation for an entire generation!

The devil knows this, focuses instead on emotional outbursts and calls it revival. And through the Catholic system, he parades a wafer of bread in a golden sun disk called a monstrance, for the people to worship as if it were God. Brothers and sisters, this is idolatry!

This just happened with 50,000 deceived Catholics marching to Indiana for the “Eucharistic Revival.”

Their hope isn’t in Jesus Christ, by faith in His shed blood to forgive all their sins. They trust in a magic wafer and a system of works that claims it will get them to heaven —after they have burned in purgatory for a few thousand years.

The Catholic system will never satisfy, take away sins, or lead them to a saving relationship with our loving, living Saviour. Millions of precious souls need the assurance of Jesus Christ and salvation in His name, not the false assurances of priests, popes and rituals.

It’s not about the real Jesus. Their own website asks, “Ready to fall deeper in love with the Eucharist?” That is the wafer god that they believe possesses Jesus’ “body, soul and divinity.”

Don’t forget: the same people who put on this show, used to put Bible believers to a fiery death at the stake who refused to worship the “real presence of Christ” in the Eucharist.

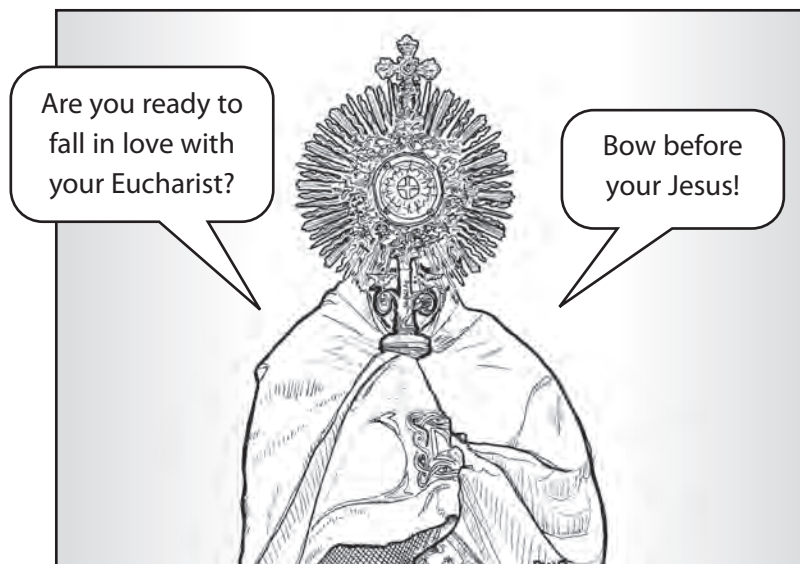

We must reach these precious Catholic souls with gospel tracts that wake them up to their need for a Saviour, not the fake bread-god carried in a parade.

Instead of parades, we need a true revival of faith in the Lord’s holy and preserved words, and faithful surrender to Christ. Jesus won’t lead us to a bondage of priestcraft. He said, “And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (John 8:32).
